Bridge Crash of Commuter Train Injures 33

Cars of a Pennsylvania railroad commuter train leave the rails and pile up on the Schuylkill river bridge east of the Philadelphia 30th street station Nov. 11. At least 33 passenger were hurt. The train was en route to the central city suburban station and had just left the 30th street station, background, when the wreck occurred.

Christmas Savings Increase Nearly Million in 10 Years

Kaplan Assures Watson of Interest

Tells IBM Chairman City C of C Stands Ready to Cooperate

The announcement by Thomas J. Watson, chairman of the board of International Business Machines, Inc., that IBM will locate a plant in the town of Ulster near Kingston was received with "genuine pleasure," Adrian Kaplan, president of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce, said in a letter to Watson.

Kaplan assured the IBM head that the Chamber of Commerce office, facilities and personnel "stand ready to cooperate with IBM and work with you and your associates in every possible way."

Kaplan's Letter

The letter follows:

Kingston Chamber of Commerce
November 11, 1953

Mr. Thomas J. Watson, Chairman
International Business Machines, Inc.
590 Madison Avenue
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Watson:

Your announcement of IBM's plans to expand its plant facilities here was received with genuine pleasure. We feel highly honored that Kingston was selected by IBM.

The development of IBM's facilities here will make a very substantial contribution to our economic and cultural life. We sincerely hope that the project will develop to be more successful and extensive than you anticipate.

Our office, its facilities and personnel, stand ready to cooperate with IBM and work with you and

7 Banks Mail Checks for $1,339,000; Gain Over Last Year Is $118,000

Christmas Club saving in local banks has gained by nearly $1,000,000 in 10 years, estimates on the total in checks to be mailed this month showed today.

Seven local banks will mail out approximately $1,339,000 for a gain of about $118,000 over the 1952 total of $1,221,000, and this year's total is $953,000 above the $386,000 reported for five banks in 1943.

Kingston Trust Leads

Most banks showed a gain this year over 1952, and the highest total is $512,000 for the Kingston Trust Company and its branch.

Of this total the branch bank expects to mail out about $400,000 in checks and the uptown bank about $112,000. The latter total was about the same as last year, but the branch showed a gain of about $50,000.

The Rondout National Bank showed a slight loss this year possibly due to its moving operations. This year's total is $285,000 and last year's was $288,000.

The State of New York National Bank reported a total of $250,000 for a gain of about $25,000 over 1952, and the National Ulster County Bank of Kingston will mail out $175,000 in checks for a gain of about $10,000.

The Rondout Savings Bank reported about $40,000 this year as against $24,000 in 1952, and the Home Seekers Savings & Loan Association this year expects to mail out about $61,145. It is new in the Christmas Club field and its starting total a year ago was only $7,600.

The Savings and Loan Association of Kingston, also new in the field, will mail out about $15,000 in checks as compared to a starting total of $3,400.

Police Conference Tells Dewey City Forces Too Low

Keresman Letter Declares Action Needed, Cites Resignations of Personnel

The Police Conference of the State of New York said today it had told Gov. Dewey that municipal police departments were at a "dangerously low point" in manpower.

Executive Secretary Peter Keresman of this city, announced he had written Dewey that state action was needed because of "wholesale resignations" of career policemen and "the failure to attract qualified replacements."

Conference records show, Keresman said, that resignations in 128 upstate police departments increased more than 100 per cent in 1952 over the previous year.

'Must Better Conditions'

His letter to Dewey said wages and working conditions must be sufficiently attractive to secure and hold "the highest type of manhood produced in each community."

It has proved fallacious, Keresman wrote, "to resort to such expediencies as lowering qualifications" for police jobs.

The Conference urged adoption of uniform qualifications and training for police as recommended last spring by the State Crime Commission.

It also told Dewey it would ask the 1954 Legislature as it has in past sessions to approve bills providing a statewide 40-hour week for police, 25 year optional retirement and salaries "commensurate with living costs."

More Freedom Seen For Builders of Homes

Miami Beach, Fla., Nov. 12 (AP)—The Federal Housing Administration is going to take its heavy pencil off the blueprints of homebuilders and try to let them build the kind of houses they want.

Guy T. O. Hallyday, FHA commissioner, said some men on his staff have been "penalizing progress and rewarding mediocrity" by being too strict about the architectural designs they will approve for mortgage insurance.

"If Joe Smith wants to live in a ranch type house we want him to have the opportunity to do so without having a hint given to him that he could get a cape cod house through the FHA easier," Hoilyday said.

He drew applause from the Mortgage Bankers Association Convention when he told them "we've been forcing builders not to build to satisfy the housing market, but to build to a mortgage pattern. I believe we can change that system."

Port Ewen Fire House Contracts Are Awarded

Contracts totaling $31,348 for the remodeling of the Port Ewen fire house and construction of an addition have been let by the board of fire commissioners, it was announced today.

Contract were awarded to the firms who submitted lowest bids. Thomas Kennedy & Sons was awarded the general, masonry, carpentry, steel and iron, and painting contract for $24,121.

Weiber & Walter, Inc., was awarded the plumbing, water service and sewage disposal contract on a bid of $2,588, and the heating contract for $2,844.

John D. Krusher was awarded the electrical contract on his bid of $1,795. All the contractors are Kingston firms.

The bids were publicly opened by the board of fire commissioners at a meeting on Nov. 5.

The plans, as finally approved, call for the remodeling of the present fire house and the construction of a two story addition about 36 by 32 feet in dimensions. George Lowe of Ulster Park is the architect.

Work is expected to start in the near future.

The addition will be of concrete block construction, with brick veneer facing Legion Court and Broadway. The veneer will extend over the present structure on Broadway (Route 9W) giving the appearance of a completely new building.

The exit for the apparatus will face Legion Court instead of Broadway as at present. An entrance into the fire house and its second floor meeting room will be on Broadway, with an entrance porch.

The main floor of the existing structure will be used as furnace room, and men's room. The present stairway will be used for access to the meeting room. Second floor of the existing structure will contain a kitchen, men's and ladies' rooms and a small coat room. The addition will contain room for present and new fire apparatus on the first floor and a new meeting room on the second floor.

Fire district voters have approved a bond issue of $44,000 for the purpose of enlarging the fire house. Of the amount, $4,000 was earmarked for the purpose of purchasing adjoining property.

Buildings now on the adjoining property will be advertised for sale, the fire commissioners announced, with the provision that the purchaser must remove them.

Eisenhower to Start Trip For Canadian Discussions

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—President Eisenhower leaves late today (5 p. m.) on a good neighbor trip to Ottawa for discussion of mutual problems—such as continental defense against any enemy attack—with top Canadian officials.

Eisenhower's special train is due in the Canadian capital at 11:30 a. m. tomorrow.

The President will be accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, Ambassador and Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. and a small staff of White House aides. Lodge is chief of the U. S. mission to the United Nations.

The two-day state visit to Ottawa will be Eisenhower's second trip outside the United States since he took office last January. He crossed from Texas into Mexico last month.

The President told his news conference yesterday he is going to Canada to pay his respects to the people of the dominion. His address to Parliament Saturday, Eisenhower added, will deal with matters of common interest to the United States and Canada.

In Ottawa, Eisenhower will be the guest of the Governor-General, Vincent Massey, and Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent.

The calendar of Eisenhower's activities in Ottawa tomorrow and Saturday is mainly on the social side, but aides said the chief executive also plans to review Canadian-American relations in private talks with dominion officials.

Although Lodge is accompanying the President, these aides said

'No' to Velde Subpoena By Truman

Declares 'Duty' Forces Him to Decline; Says He Is Carrying Out Constitution

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—Former President Truman refused today to comply with a subpoena to appear before the House Un-American Activities Committee to testify in the Harry Dexter White case.

His refusal was contained in a letter delivered by Charles P. Murphy, former White House counsel, to Chairman Velde (R.-Ill.) of the committee. Velde announced this morning that Truman's appearance had been indefinitely postponed.

Truman wrote Velde that "in spite of a personal willingness to cooperate with your committee, I feel constrained by my duty to the people of the United States to decline to comply with the subpoena." He added:

'Carrying Out Provisions'

"In doing so, I am carrying out the provisions of the constitution of the United States and am following a long line of precedents commencing with George Washington himself in 1796."

A little before the letter became public, a high congressional source had said Truman was taking a position of refusal based on the doctrine of the separation of powers in government—that the legislative branch has no authority over the executive branch.

Velde's announcement of a postponement wiped out the immediate possibility of a showdown on the issue of whether the ex-President had to comply with the subpoena to tell of his actions in the White case seven years ago.

However, Velde said he was not dropping the matter. He issued this statement:

"I feel very definitely that Harry S. Truman and Governor Byrnes (of South Carolina) should appear before the Un-American Activities Committee to give information to the committee concerning the Harry Dexter White matter. I feel that I was within my rights in issuing the subpoenas for them and will continue pressing for these hearings.

Will Be Heard

"Governor Byrnes has very kindly consented to be heard by the subcommittee in his home state.

"As soon as it is possible, I intend to call an executive meeting of the whole committee to determine these issues. Until that meeting is held, I feel that it will be necessary to postpone the hearing of Harry S. Truman set for tomorrow."

Earlier, Velde had canceled a subpoena for Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, former military aide to Truman.

Number Has Place

Hamilton, Ohio, Nov. 12 (AP)—The number "11" already has a place in the life of the one-day old son of Mrs. Henry Saylor. He was born at 6:11 on the 11th month and the 11th day at Mercy Hospital yesterday. He weighed 11 pounds, 11 ounces. The parents reside at 611 South 11th street.

Thruway Spur Opening Question To Be Decided

A. R. Erskine, New York State Thruway engineer at Poughkeepsie, said today that the opening this winter of the spur to connect Route 28 and the thruway just west of the city, was "still a question to be decided."

The concrete work should be done and the spur should be ready for traffic before the end of this month, he indicated, but since it poses a traffic problem for Kingston, it is still "a moot question," the engineer said.

Meanwhile, other area thruway work has been progressing so that as much headway as possible will be made before crippling cold weather, but some delay was reported in the Rosendale area due to "ground water."

Water Slows Operation

The water is giving trouble on both sides of the Rondout creek and is slowing down some operations.

Footing is being sunk, however, for the bridge that will span the Rondout creek in the LeFever Falls area. It is to be one of the largest spans in the region and work on its main structure should be under way next spring and summer.

The Kingston-Whiteport section should be ready for the pouring of concrete in the spring, Erskine indicated, and much of the grading between New Paltz and Newburgh should be finished to the point before cold weather where it will be ready for concrete in the spring. It is hoped concrete work will start on the Whiteport-Ohioville section next June.

Associates Report On Truman, White

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—Associates of former President Truman say he retained Harry Dexter White in his administration in cooperation with the FBI to prevent Communists from learning White was under surveillance, several newspapers have reported in Washington dispatches.

Published accounts include those in the Newark Evening News, New York Times, Chicago Daily News and Chicago Sun-Times.

It was because White was suspected, the associates were quoted as saying, that he was transfered from his "security sensitive" post as an assistant secretary of the treasury to the "less sensitive" post as director of the International Monetary Fund. The transfer was described by these associates as not a promotion.

Taylor Says Parley On Rift Is to Air Opinion of Public

State Leader Differs With Wicks Meeting Called to Exert Pressure for Resignation

Albany, Nov. 12 (AP) — The state's top Republican policy makers meet today in the face of a declaration by Acting Lt. Gov. Arthur H. Wicks that the conference was devised by Gov. Dewey and the state GOP chairman as a political pressure move.

Wicks' statement on the meeting of the state executive committee was contained in a letter sent yesterday to Rep. Dean P. Taylor, the Republican chairman. Taylor replied that "after all, the only pressure involved here is the healthy force of public opinion."

Taylor called the meeting at 2 p. m. to make clear the party's position in the row between Dewey and Wicks, precipitated by the Kingston senator's prison visits to labor extortionist Joseph S. Fay.

The issue of whether Wicks should retain the post of Senate leader, through which he achieved the status of acting lieutenant governor, will be taken up at a special session of the Legislature next Thursday.

Wicks, one of two senators on the executive committee, contended in the letter that today's meeting had been devised by Dewey and Taylor to "apply political pressure on members of the Senate" and constituted political interference in the legislative branch of the government. "Under the circumstances," Wicks said, he would not attend.

Says Wicks Mistaken

Taylor asserted in his statement that Wicks was "mistaken in saying that the office he holds is strictly legislative."

He added:

"The only title he holds except that of senator is that of temporary president of the Senate, which he acquired by the grace of the Republican members in party caucus."

There was every expectation as the executive committee members assembled that, despite Wicks' charge, they would take action on the matters they were summoned to deal with.

Taylor was expected to read the Wicks' letter into the record of the meeting.

Taylor said Monday the 29-member, policy-forming core of the state organization would consider resolutions on (1) the "propriety" of Wicks' visits to Fay in Sing Sing, (2) the "acceptance of (Wicks') forthcoming resignation" and (3) the "need" to make public the votes of Republican senators on Wicks' resignation at the special legislative session.

Hits Last Item

Wicks, who has denied any wrongdoing in connection with the visits, described this last item as "the most outrageous affront to the members of the Senate that ever was conceived."

Traditional policy requires, he wrote Taylor, that votes taken in party conferences and caucuses be kept "secret and confidential."

Wicks declared that the "obvious reason" for the proposal to make public the vote was "to attempt to intimidate the senators by a thinly veiled threat ***"

Knowing Taylor as he did, Wicks added, he could not believe the Troy congressman "would ever countenance any such un-American system of coercion."

The letter contained no reference to Wicks' reported decision not to submit his resignation to the Senate, as he had declared earlier he would, and to force the showdown directly on the issue of whether he should be removed.

Disagree on Secrecy

In his reply, Taylor said the senator "appears to regard a public record of the votes by the members of the Senate as 'pressure.'"

The Troy congressman expressed the belief that it was the "elementary responsibility" of public officials to let the people know

Quirino Concedes Isles' Election of Ramon Magsaysay

Staunch Friend of U. S. Is Landslide Winner in Philippines; 4-Year Term

Manila, Nov. 12 (AP)—Tired, ailing President Elpidio Quirino today conceded victory in the Philippines presidential election to youthful, vigorous Ramon Magsaysay, who won in a landslide.

The 46-year-old Communist-Huk fighter, a staunch friend of the United States, becomes the third president of this seven-year-old republic. He is to take office Jan. 1 for a four-year term. Quirino steps out after six years in office.

With about 60 per cent of Tuesday's vote tabulated, the unofficial count was Magsaysay, 1,815,188; Quirino, 798,022.

The concession statement by the 62-year-old Quirino, still recovering from two major stomach operations in the United States, was read to newsmen by his press secretary.

His Statement

"In this year's election," it said, "evidently the people expected much in a change of administration. My most fervent prayer at this hour is that the change is for the better."

"The people's verdict should be accepted for the sake of national unity. I have nothing but good wishes for the country and my successor."

Magsaysay was cruising in Manila Bay on the palatial yacht of Adm. Richard H. Cruzen, commander of U. S. Naval forces in the Philippines, when word reached him that Quirino had conceded. He had gone aboard the yacht to escape admiring crowds.

Over the yacht's radio telephone Magsaysay said he was "profoundly grateful to our people for the overwhelming expression of their confidence in our cause."

He said the election, cleanest

Mayor Would Not Accept Treasurer Or Assessor Post

Newkirk Says He Has Not Been Approached on Subject of City Appointment

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, in a statement today, said he would not accept the positions of treasurer or assessor if offered to him as rumored, and said he had heard nothing, to date, on reports that the mayor's salary and those of other city officials might be increased.

The mayor's direct statement concerned only the reports that he would become city treasurer or assessor and said:

"Regarding the rumors that have been in the newspaper and on the radio in reference to my filling the office of city treasurer or city assessor, I want to say that I have not been approached on the subject. In the event that the mayor-elect, Fred Stang, offers either of these posts, city treasurer or city assessor to me; I definitely would not accept."

As to salary increases, the mayor indicated, he knew only of requests by the Ulster County Chapter, Civil Service Employes Association for a "freeze-in" of cost-of-living bonuses on all salaries and the suggestion that salaries of city employes should be raised.

Loss Is Cited

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—Choked transit and traffic in the metropolitan area, including Long Island, Westchester and New Jersey, is causing an annual loss to business of one billion dollars, a traffic commissioner said today. Charles H. Tuttle, chairman of the New York Rapid Transit Commission, said also that among the solutions suggested is a new direct rail connection from New Jersey into midtown Manhattan; shuttle services and numerous parking lots.

Medical President Hails Golden Era of Progress

Chicago, Nov. 12 (AP)—The president of the American Medical Association said today that society is "passing through a golden era of tremendous medical advances" and is "headed for a future in which the doctor of medicine will devote most of his time to disease prevention."

Dr. Edward J. McCormick of Toledo, Ohio, told delegates to a convention of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults:

"Research workers are making magnificent progress in all fields. Spectacular devices such as the mechanical heart and lung and the mechanical kidney demonstrate man's ability to ferret out the long-hidden secrets of the human body. Operations upon the heart, the brain, the lungs and stomach and other vital organs, impossible 25 years ago, are now being accomplished with safety and success."

He said mass inoculation of children with gamma globulin appears to temporarily prevent polio, and added:

"Permanent vaccines against this disease are now being developed and it is my sincere belief that they will be available for general distribution before too long."

He said, however, there never will be a vaccine against preventable accidents and the accident problem must be solved.

"Unless we learn to use our in-

Unit Backs Away From Truman Bid

Velde Says He Is Not Dropping Matter; Big Split Develops in His Committee

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—Senate investigators began digging into the roaring Brownell-Truman-White controversy today with T. Lamar Caudle, onetime assistant attorney general, as their first witness. Caudle was questioned behind closed doors.

At the same time, the House Un-American Activities Committee backed away from its demand that former President Truman come before it tomorrow for questioning on Atty. Gen. Brownell's charges that Truman promoted Harry Dexter White, a Treasury official, in 1946 despite FBI advices that White was a Russian spy.

Chairman Velde (R.-Ill.) of the House group postponed indefinitely its scheduled hearing. He insisted, however, he isn't dropping the matter.

Members Are Split

Members of the House Committee are badly split over the propriety of Velde's subpoena to Truman. Those questioning it felt their hand was strengthened by President Eisenhower's statement yesterday that he personally would not have subpoenaed the ex-President.

Truman, who is in New York, declined again today to disclose his attitude toward the summons but said "they," presumably meaning friends and advisors, were working on a statement.

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee began its closed door huddle with Caudle at 11 a. m.

They planned also to hear Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, who was military aide to Truman, and Miss Ruth Anderson, who was Vaughan's secretary at the White House, in a closed meeting at 2 p. m. (EST), and later have public hearings with Vaughan in the witness chair.

Vaughan was summoned before the Senate group to tell what he knows of FBI reports on White at the time in early 1946 when Truman named White U. S. director of the International Monetary Fund. Atty. Gen. Brownell set off the uproar last Friday by saying the FBI reported to the White House, before Truman made the appointment, that White, who died in 1948, had been an active Communist spy.

After a closed session with Vaughan and his former secretary, Ruth Anderson, the subcommittee planned to throw its sessions open (2:30 p. m.) to the public, newsmen and television cameras. Dumont and ABC plan to carry the hearing on their TV networks.

The House Un-American Activities Committee, which issued the summons for Truman, was all tangled up in arguments over procedure.

It appeared highly unlikely the committee would proceed tomorrow to question Truman and his former attorney general, Tom C. Clark, now a Supreme Court justice.

No Eisenhower Support

President Eisenhower jettisoned any hope for administration support the committee might have held in efforts to force Truman to testify in the furor which Brownell touched off six days ago.

Eisenhower said he personally would not have slapped a subpoena on the ex-President, and he said it was inconceivable to him that Truman knowingly would appoint a spy to high office.

Brownell himself followed up with a statement he had "no intention of impugning the loyalty of any high official of the prior administration." But he said additional evidence just turned up seems to show beyond doubt that there was laxity in dealing with Communist infiltration of the government.

Chairman Velde (R-Ill.) of the

Stevedore Unit Will Not Boycott

New York, Nov. 12 (AP) — The old International Longshoremen's Association says it will not boycott the New York-New Jersey law requiring dock workers to register.

Earlier the now independent ILA, ousted from the AFL for failure to clean house and battling the new AFL-ILA union for dock supremacy, had said it would advise its members to refuse to register.

The registration law is a part of federally approved legislation set up by the new Bi-State Waterfront Commission aimed at ridding the piers of ex-convicts and corruption.

Yesterday ILA Vice President Patrick J. Connolly said the union's legal counsel had advised that the boycott be called off.

Connolly's announcement followed a ruling by a three-judge federal district court upholding the constitutionality of the registration law.

The AFL-ILA also issued a statement yesterday to "clarify" its position regarding the law.

The statement said the union "stands firmly" for repeal of the law, that longshoremen "have a serious beef in respect to the controls imposed on them," but added:

"At present, for any longshoreman to refuse to register means job suicide. He simply will not be able to work on the docks."

Special Blessing Given

Rome, Nov. 12 (AP)—Pope Pius XII has given a special blessing to the United Nations program to assist under-developed countries. The Holy See also pledged $2,000 as a token contribution for the UN expanded technical assistance program. It was transmitted through Norris E. Dodd, director general of the UN Food and Agricultural Organization, which is located here. Under the technical assistance program, in which more than 50 countries cooperate, the UN and its specialized agencies send expert advisers to under-developed areas to teach the inhabitants how to help themselves.

Helsinki, Finland, Nov. 12 (AP)—Finnish authorities continued a probe into alleged spy activities today after announcing the arrest of five men, including an officer and an air force sergeant, on charges of spying for an unidentified foreign power. They were arrested Oct. 27 at Jyvaskyla, in central Finland, near a Finnish air base.

Found Shot to Death

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—Police reported Warren Moore, 37, was found shot to death, apparently a suicide, in his east side apartment early today. Mrs. Plummer Jordan Moore told police she discovered the body of her husband on returning home after an absence of several days. She said her husband, once a dancing instructor, was released from a rest home last Friday. Police said a .22 calibre rifle was beside the body. No notes were found.

Talks Are Proposed

United Nations, Nov. 12 (AP)—The United States, Britain and France have proposed direct four-power talks with Russia in an attempt to break the logjam on disarmament and atomic weapon control measures. The suggestion was made in a resolution submitted yesterday to the UN's 60-nation political committee. There was no immediate Soviet reaction but Kremlin representatives here have supported similar proposals in the past.

YMCA News

Gym Groups Divided

The YMCA gymnasium and recreational groups of boys between the ages of 8 to 14 years are now being divided into clubs for special activities in the gymnasium, swimming pool and Boys Division rooms.

Lou Schafer, "Y" secretary, who at present is without a youth secretary, is organizing the boys division groups. Ed Brouck, who assisted "Chick" Correll, when he was youth work secretary, is assisting Schafer in the club work.

The Preps, boys 8 to 11 years, are arranged into group teams for their gymnasium work. These teams also will have guided work in the swimming pool. The recreation game room groups will be organized this coming weekend. The Cadets, boys between 11 and 14 years of age, are being organized into a basketball league. This group of boys have been under the guidance of George McElroy, "Y" physical director. McElroy has given this group instructions in good dribbling and basketball possession. He also stressed the art of good passing with the ball going direct to the player or the judging of a boy's speed and leading him in his pass. Much emphasis has been given to the screening, which is sometimes called the "pick-off." Saturday morning, Nov. 14, the teams will have team practice sessions and the league will start Nov. 21.

All boys between the ages of 8 to 14 years who wish to join one of these Cadet basketball teams or one of the Preps recreation teams should report to the YMCA either Tuesday afternoon or Saturday morning.

German Plans Siamese Operation

Darmstadt, Germany, Nov. 12 (AP)—A German surgeon said today he would begin soon initial steps to separate 2-year-old Siamese twin girls joined at the skull.

Prof. Wolfgang Rueckert, chief surgeon at a Darmstadt hospital, said the process he plans for separating Rosemarine and Lotte Knaath would take considerable time, possibly several years before an operation is performed.

He said he planned to place a band around the section where the girls' skulls are joined to restrict the growth at that point. After the joined portion has narrowed, an operation may be performed, he said.

Examinations have shown the twins have individual brain structures and do not share any major arteries.

German authorities last year denied permission to the father, Georg Knaath, of Homburg near Duesseldorf, to put the twins on exhibition.

German doctors interested in the case have followed studies of operations performed on the similarly joined Brodie twins in Chicago last year. One of the Brodie twins died.

Ships Dock at Trieste

Trieste, Nov. 12 (AP)—Three British frigates docked in this troubled port today while red-capped British military police and two Bren gun carriers patrolled the quay. A Royal Navy spokesman described the visit as "routine." He said, however, the length of stay would depend on "the circumstances." He did not elaborate. The frigates Mermaid, Peacock and Magpie made fast just 100 yards from Piazza Dell-Unita where bloody violence flared last week. Groups of Triestini, still smarting from the police action against last week's Trieste riots, in which six persons were killed, gathered along the quay. But they were politely told by civil police not to loiter. There was no disorder.

No Sabotage Reported

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—Sen. Case (R-S.D.) said today French and British Communists are helping build U. S. air bases abroad, but there has been no sabotage and none is expected. "There is no way to screen out Communist workers in England and France on military projects there," he said and added: "I was told that many of the workers are called Communists but actually are State-Socialists. They are there to earn a daily wage and there has been no sabotage." Case is chairman of a Senate Armed Services subcommittee which recently toured U. S. military installations abroad.

Good Dish for Small Fry

Goldenrod eggs are easy to prepare and small fry love this dish. Cook several eggs until they are hard, then slice the whites in thin slivers and add them to a cup of medium white sauce. Heat and pour over crisp toast; now rub the hard-cooked yolks through a sieve and let them garnish the dish. This amount will be enough for two or three servings.

Save Dish Washing.

It's a good idea to sift dry ingredients, when you are baking, on to a piece of waxed or clean brown paper. Saves washing a utensil!

EISENHOWER'S HUMILITY

After what a certain TV performer has done to the word "humility," it takes perhaps a bit of boldness to mention the term in serious vein. But it applies with remarkable fitness to President Eisenhower.

When, as General Eisenhower, he made a great reputation as a soldier-diplomat, it was not widely realized how humble a man he is. Humility is not a quality automatically called to mind as one thinks of a world leader, particularly a high military commander.

Yet, for the kind of inspiring leadership he was exerting among the free nations, both as wartime chief and later as NATO commander, Mr. Eisenhower's humility was no handicap. It served rather to endear him to our allies and to strengthen his influence as a leader of men.

It was in character that he should not wish to seek the presidency. He could not, however, indefinitely turn aside the pressures upon him to make himself "available." With obvious reluctance, he yielded in 1952.

And so he became President, and brought with him to the White House that same humility. Its existence proved a shock to many people who had not looked at him closely until then. They perhaps imagined him equipped with the kind of ego that makes some leaders ride roughshod over their opponents.

Mr. Eisenhower does not have it. He is a composer of differences, an accommodator. Being that, he has brought much that is new and refreshing in presidential attitude. He has tried to see all sides, to be President of all the people. He has sought to avoid humiliating or crushing anyone.

Still, this admirable trait has its unhappy aspect for a man occupying the White House. For in that place he is more than the leader of his country. He is the chief of his political party, with vast power which he can wield not only for partisan advantage but also for the larger good. In other words, the party machinery, properly managed, can function as a sort of booster for the more cumbersome machinery of government.

Being not merely humble but green in politics, the President has tried to shrink from this part of his job. He has made political decisions only when they were forced upon him. This often has left him at the mercy of competing advice, with the result that he has seemed to "back and fill" as pressures shifted.

Likewise, his desire to "leave Congress alone," while soundly based from one point of view, lays him open to the same difficulty. By putting his office in somewhat modest perspective, he gives Congress license to assume an overriding position. Since Congress is an arena reflecting the strength of the most powerful pressure groups, they, too, are exalted in stature.

In consequence, the President many times seems to be a man simply responding to the greatest pressures of the moment. Yet he holds the greatest office in the world, one that can be used steadily for commanding influence without descending to the ruthless, arrogant exercise of power.

One of these days we expect to hear a radio and television announcer tell us that his brand of soap not only washes clothes cleaner than any other soap but irons and folds them as well.

CONFERENCES WITH RUSSIA

President Eisenhower does not see how any conference with Malenkov would do any good because no one can believe in Russian willingness to keep her promises. Most Americans will agree to that. Europeans, hoping against hope that something will come to prevent another war, want another conference. When that fails, if the Russians proposed another, the Europeans would want that too. And so on ad infinitum.

One humorous aspect of a grim subject is the suggestion that President Eisenhower would not like to be photographed in smiling conversation with Malenkov. Some well-known Red-hunters would take that as sure proof that subversive activities had reached the highest level of our government.

OIL AND EDUCATION

Los Angeles, Nov. 11—Some of the oil-producing states, such as Texas and New Mexico, have tied their educational budget to the production of oil. The states generally receive a one-eighth royalty. If oil is plentifully produced, the schools are plentifully provisioned. The present general reduction in oil production (allowables, as it is called) is imperilling school budgets in those states.

The petroleum industry of Texas, for instance, provides 37.8 per cent of the available school fund; 54.4 per cent of the foundation school fund; and 58.5 per cent of the teacher's retirement fund. Obviously, a sharp reduction of oil production can cripple these funds. The present cut-down of allowables is attributed to the import of foreign oil in an over-extended world market, which became over-extended during the war years and has never adjusted to peacetime needs.

In California, there is a shortage of oil production, but there is no pipeline between California and West Texas and the adjacent oil producing areas. So Texas oil is shipped from Houston, through the Panama Canal, up to Los Angeles by tanker, a distance of 8,812 miles, which makes that oil too expensive for California. A pipeline would reduce the distance to 550 miles and is a less expensive way to move this product.

Oil for the West Coast comes from the Middle and Near East, Venezuela, Sumatra, Borneo, and from Texas in tankers. A recent development, not yet completed, is to bring oil from West Canada, by pipeline, to a refinery at Bellingham, Washington. Canadian production is in an early stage and does not yet amount to much but the Canadians are hopeful that their fields will develop enormously and will expand far beyond Canada's capacity to consume oil, thus providing that country with another export product. Canada views its exports realistically, seeking always to develop a favorable trade balance.

The Texas oil men naturally raise the propagandistic argument that California consumers ought to prefer Texas to Canada, if for no other reason than they happen to be Americans just as the Californians are. That used to be a good argument about anything, but in these days of internationalism, it would seem to be a liability, because it is part of the current do-good policy to favor foreigners at the expense of Americans.

In fact, it has often been suggested in recent years that the way to solve this paradox of importing from abroad commodities of which we have much or even to much at home is to lower the tariff, to import plentifully from abroad and to give the American producer a dole. After all, the argument runs, we give a subsidy to the farmer not to produce, why not give the American businessman a subsidy not to produce? And why not give American labor a dole if it agrees not to work?

Some of those who are so enthusiastically supporting the dole idea for business that might become distressed because of easy imports into this country, fought bitterly against doles for other segments of the population in distress. Although mere consistency is not a virtue, the record ought to be stated.

The anti-social character of their argument should be obvious, but it is not to the internationalists who are more concerned about Jordan, Iraq, Saudi Arabia and Borneo than they are about Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Louisiana. It is a theory of self-flagellation in the economic field and produces a self-righteous glow among those enormously important businessmen whose investments are universal and whose interests know no nationality.

Also, we have learned in two wars what the submarine can do and now we need to add the efficient airplane and the atom bombs and atom guns to the submarine. Therefore it must be assumed that in time of war, our safest course is to be as self-sufficient as possible. Certainly we need not import oil. It might be argued that if production is reduced in the United States and is increased abroad, the amount of oil available to the United States will be greater. But how are we going to bring oil to the United States in tankers across the Pacific Ocean, to say nothing of the Atlantic? What will the enemy's schnorkle submarines be doing to our tankers?

Internationalism can do great mischief when we move away from grandiose phrases and get down to hardnan.

That Body of Yours

NEW SYSTEM OF HOME CARE

Despite all the new hospitals and the extension of present hospital buildings, hospital facilities are crowded and, unless it is an emergency, the physician often has to wait weeks to get a bed for a patient. For this reason many hospitals now provide home care for patients. Physicians and nurses are sent right into the home where the same care is adminstered as that given by the hospital to its in-patients.

It is of interest to learn of the Philadelphia Plan for Home Care of Chronically Ill Persons as outlined by Dr. Louis Udell, Philadelphia, in the Journal of the American Medical Association. This new plan has been in operation in a section of Philadelphia since 1949, under the aegis of the Visiting Nurse Society of Philadelphia. This program, officially known as the Intensive Home Care Plan for the Chronically Ill, is based on medical care rendered by the family physician practicing in the community, in contrast to plans in which the medical care is given by staff physicians of the hospital from which the patient has been discharged.

"The purpose of the plan is to give the chronically ill, homebound patient better and more complete medical care in his own home, using the team cooperation approach and always keeping him under the direct supervision of his family physician." This plan was designed to permit participating hospitals to use their beds to better advantage by the discharge of patients who no longer need "specialized" hospital care and who can, therefore, be sent home, provided the necessary equipment, personnel, and supervision are available.

The plan was set up to improve medical and "social" care of persons who have been home-bound for long periods, who probably sometimes feel deserted. Patients with adequate medical and social care at home are not nearly so anxious to enter a hospital which means a saving of hospital beds. Nothing is done without orders from the patient's physician.

What has been the reaction of the patients and their families? "Almost all hospitalized patients want to return home as soon as possible, and they are most grateful when they can get home sooner than would otherwise be possible. Many patients who are sullen and rebellious in the hospital become happy and cooperative at home."

Many patients who have been home for a long time, bedfast or partially helpless, feel that they are being forgotten. These patients have received an uplift by this new home plan when cared for by a whole team of "specialists" headed by the family physician. The fact that persons come in to give them care, show interest in them, and teach them something, raises them from despondency.

And the well members of the family, seeing the loved one receiving care right at home, get a new lease on life because, formerly they did not know what to do for the patient.

Just That Man Again!

Edson's Washington News Notebook

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA) — The crash of conflicting statements over whether the United States is or is not going to reduce its armed forces overseas is taken in Washington to mean one thing:

The Joint Chiefs of Staff hasn't yet made up its mind.

This lack of decision has not gone far enough to say that there is any split in the new JCS organization. The new JCS was supposed to take a "new look" that would revolutionize American defense plans. But so far it has not yet produced a view that is much different from what was seen by the old team under General of the Army Omar Bradley.

The missions of the armed services remain what they were. There is no grand new strategy. Not even the defense budget for next year will be changed appreciably.

The explanation given now is that the "new-look" idea was something dreamed up by Congress and the newspapers. The Joint Chiefs under General Bradley were constantly taking a new look, it is said. The new team is merely continuing that process.

In one respect, the new JCS team does have an advantage over its predecessors. Three of the four members came to Washington fresh from unified commands overseas. Chairman Adm. Arthur W. Radford had the Pacific command at Honolulu. Army Chief of Staff Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway had been supreme commander at both NATO headquarters in Europe and Far East headquarters in Tokyo. Chief of Naval Operations Adm. Robert B. Carney had the Southern European and Mediterranean command at Naples.

Overseas Duty

Only Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Nathan F. Twining has been on Washington duty in this period. He was vice chief to Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg. He is known to share his predecessor's views on building up the air force and expansion of overseas bases.

In support of the idea that there has been no change in American grand strategy, President Eisenhower himself has declared flatly that there is no plan to reduce U. S. forces anywhere. On the contrary, the President says these forces are probably on the increase.

This statement should be high enough and final enough for anyone, but apparently it isn't. Reports that U. S. armed forces overseas are going to be cut stem from these factors and sources:

1. The need to reduce the U. S. military budget. This comes chiefly from fiscal officials and economy-minded congressmen.

2. A manpower shortage. Department of Defense officials see trouble ahead in keeping the armed forces up to 3.5-million level. A reduction to match available manpower is talked of as a coming necessity.

3. The development of sensational new weapons that may someday make conventional armaments obsolete and so permit a reduction of armed forces. This is an argument of air force enthusiasts and believers of the theory that atomic weapons can completely change the nature of warfare in the future.

Conventional Weapons

Opposing these arguments, there is known to be a strong belief among army and navy men that the production of conventional weapons must be continued until the new weapons have been tested in combat.

Atomic bombs, artillery and submarines, guided missiles and supersonic planes that do everything by electronic control are considered nice things to have and to experiment with. But until they are used in battle, there is some reluctance on the part of the surface admirals and generals to go all-out on new-weapon production while abandoning production of the conventional World War 2 weapons.

Currently, the four members of the Joint Chiefs are winding up overseas inspection trips which will give them a fresh look, if not a new look. Admiral Radford and General Twining are in Europe. General Ridgway and Admiral Carney are in the Pacific.

As a long-range problem, much of the pressure for reduction of U. S. forces overseas comes from another air force bid for the dominant role in warfare of the future. Old-line army and navy leaders can be counted on to resist this trend to the bitter end.

Twenty and Ten Years Ago

Nov. 12, 1933—The Rondout Presbyterian Church observed its 100th anniversary.

Mrs. George Schupp, Sr., of Adams street, died.

Bishop Joseph Rummel preached the sermon at St. Peter's Church in observance of its 75th anniversary.

Miss Helen Whispell, of Derrenbacher street, and William Short, of Broadway, were married in the Holy Cross Church.

Nov. 12, 1943—C. C. DuMond, of Ulster Park, state agricultural commissioner, told the State Farm Bureau Federation, meeting at Syracuse, that the state had no meat shortage.

The local Kiwanis Club gave an Armistice Day program.

Walter Clark, of Milton, was elected a director of the New York State Farm Bureau Federation.

John Waterman, of Kingston, was elected president of the Delaware-Hudson district, State Rural Letter Carriers' Association.

Tendency to Go Off Suddenly Into Quick Decisions Noted in Public Affairs

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Nov. 12—Something seems to have happened to the old-fashioned deliberateness which men in public life used to apply to their conduct when explosive controversies of a delicate political nature suddenly confronted them.

Instead of calmly taking time to get all the facts and coming up in a few days with a cool and dispassionate appraisal, the tendency has been to go off half-cocked. This applies both to former President Truman's handling of the Harry Dexter White case and to President Eisenhower's unnecessary comments at his press conference on the way the House Un-American Activities Committee had decided to subpoena former President Truman. Also it applies to the impulsive action of the chairman of the House committee, who might better have waited to develop the case before summoning Mr. Truman.

When news first reached Mr. Truman, he said he had no recollection of the FBI memorandum mentioned by Attorney General Brownell in his speech last Friday and that anyway as soon as White's "disloyalty" was discovered, he was "fired."

Now it turns out that James F. Byrnes, then secretary of state, discussed the White case and the FBI memorandum with Mr. Truman, also the attorney general has given out a statement saying the Department of State found in its files confirmation of Mr. Byrnes' intervention the day before the Senate confirmed White to be U. S. director of the International Monetary Fund on February 6, 1946. Then on April 30, 1946, Mr. Truman wrote a laudatory letter to White as he was resigning his post as assistant secretary of the treasury. White's sister now makes public another such complimentary letter from Mr. Truman, written when White finally resigned as U. S. director of the International Monetary Fund. It is dated April 8, 1947—fourteen months after the FBI memorandum of February 4, 1946.

Mr. Truman would have been subject to no criticism whatsoever if he had told the reporters that he would have to consult his files to determine what had really happened. Nobody would have begrudged the former President an opportunity to learn what had occurred even if it took several days to get the facts. But, in these days of pressure to get a headline before a counter-headline is obtained by the other side, Mr. Truman reacted precipitately and to his own disadvantage.

Mr. Truman never liked to delve deeply into lengthy reports and depended on his staff to evaluate them. It is quite possible that the FBI memorandum wasn't taken seriously then, any more than it is given weight by lots of the pro-Truman and New Deal reporters here today who discount anything contributed by ex-Communists, especially if they have confessed their error. The fact that Elizabeth, Bentley, for example, testified about the inside of the Soviet spy ring and turned up dozens of names and facts which the FBI investigators checked and found accurate doesn't seem to bother some of those who insist on disbelieving anybody who confesses to communistic activities.

Miss Bentley's testimony has stood up in the criminal trials where the FBI has used her statements. Juries have based their verdicts not merely on her say-so but on testimony of other witnesses who have corroborated what she has charged.

The whole tendency of some of the Truman administration officials of the New Deal type was to assume that an attack on a Communist was an attack on the New Deal or Fair Deal and hence that it was necessary for the Democratic administration to take a defensive attitude.

It would have been much better, even this week, if the Democratic leaders had expressed dismay that an espionage agent had slipped through their checks, and they might have stated frankly that the matter of who did poohpooh the report and how it came to be disregarded at the White House should be thoroughly studied as a lesson for the future. Instead, the cry of politics was raised, which is a political blunder in itself. For it's bad politics for the Democrats to let the public get the impression that they would defend Communists in government, whereas the Republicans are the only ones trying to ferret them out. It would have been so easy to keep the anti-Communist effort on a non-partisan basis. Instead, the Democratic strategy is playing into the hands of the Republicans and giving them an issue of prolonged effectiveness.

Actually there was a good deal of forbearance on Mr. Brownell's part. He first learned of the second FBI memorandum in mid-October and need not have waited till after the elections, if, indeed, he was interested in getting political advantage.

As for President Eisenhower, he never should have stepped into the controversy at all at his press conference. He should have been briefed in advance to say only that his own attorney general was handling it. Members of Congress are not happy when the President tries to tell them whom they should or shouldn't subpoena, especially when the chairmanships are held by members of his own party. Some of the President's press conference comments implied that he was not supporting his own attorney general. It wasn't so intended, but that inference was drawn by the pro-Truman reporters who did most of the questioning. They seemed to be more concerned about technical procedures than about the fact that a Russian spy for a long time held a high post in our government.

It would have been the better part of wisdom for the President to let the controversy simmer along, with the Department of Justice and congressional committees developing the case in their own way. There would have been time enough for comment by the President when all the facts in the case had been brought out in public.

The controversy over Communists in government is a bitter one, and there are many people who feel that the political aspects of it are most unfortunate, as the sole object of both parties should be to root out the Communist agents still in government and to expose those who have escaped detection in the past, irrespective of politics.

New Hurley

New Hurley, Nov. 11—Over 300 persons attended the turkey supper at the New Hurley Reformed Church Hall at Sherwood Corners Wednesday night. This was sponsored by the Young Women's Club with several ladies of the church assisting. Mrs. Francis Garrison and Mrs. Jacques Baumann were chairman and co-chairman of the kitchen and Mrs. Halsey Sherwood and Mrs. Richard Schoonmaker had charge of the dining room with several of the young people assisting with the serving. Guests attended from Newburgh, Montgomery, Walden, Wallkill, Shawangunk, Gardiner, New Paltz, Clintondale, Modena, Conn., Salisbury Mills and New Hurley. The net proceeds will be announced.

On Friday afternoon the regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Powell and sister with 12 members and one visitor attending. The president, Mrs. Gerow Schoonmaker, presided. A good sum has been raised on the individual project plan. The exact amount will be announced. Mrs. Myra Dolan reported the largest amount raised as she had sold Christmas and greeting cards. Mrs. Jacob Kobelt and Mrs. Elwood Powell were appointed as a committee to select officers for the coming year. Mrs. Gerow Wilkin and Bertha Sutton were appointed as a committee for the Thanksgiving offering. The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Myra Dolan with a speaker to present the program of the church. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess and assistant.

The Milk Fund for Korea amounted to $11.10.

The Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Joseph Wendling Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

The Young Women's Club will meet Saturday afternoon, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Ira Merwin with Mrs. Charles Everett assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant and sons of New Jersey were recent visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Semple of Old Greenwich, Conn., were over night guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powell Wednesday and attended the turkey supper at the church hall.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, Nov. 11—A little prompting a short while ago has brought me a gush of reminiscenses by Charlie Porter, who was a contemporary of Damon Runyon in Denver and a couple of other fellows. I doubt that our people get as much fun out of our calling today but when I look back to my own novitiate I have to doubt that life actually was as funny to us then as we now think it was. The hours were long and $16 or $18 a week was the starting pay for a cub in Chicago so it could have been even less in Denver.

My own time in Denver was the spring of 1916 and the lively days were over even then although Runyon was a legend and Eugene Field, another heroic boozer of the frontier time, was a demi-god. They were two of the best writers our journalism has ever produced and Field's antics probably were as lively as Damon's, but he somehow left no comparable lore.

Charlie Porter lives in Chicago now but he served a hitch as sport editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, which was the basis of an incident related to me years ago by Jack Curley, the fight promoter.

Jack took fireman Jim Flynn from Denver to Salt Lake to fight a distinctly lesser gladiator and Mr. Porter, in a seizure of righteousness, deplored the mismatch as a serpent skulking about the very tap-roots of Salt Lake city's fair escutcheon. Nevertheless, the fight took place on the stage of a burlesque house, terminating untimely when Flynn knocked his adversary up into the flies.

Curley got his money and was walking to his hotel when the foreman of the composing room of the Tribune, standing in front of the shop, asked him if he had seen Charlie. They were waiting for his piece about the outrage.

Knowing that Charlie had a passion for chocolate nut sundaes, Curley suggested that they dispatch a few office boys to canvass the soda fountains and offered meanwhile, to write a story under Charlie's by-line to backstop the play in case he could not be found. He did and out of loyalty to Charlie, Mr. Curley fearlessly denounced the fight as a mockery, Jim Flynn as a brutal fellow and himself as a fly-by-night.

He was sleeping the sleep of the pure in heart about eight the next morning when the phone rang in his room and Mr. Porter began to apologize for his abusive essay, of which he had no recollection. He was down in the lobby, he said, and Flynn had just busted him one on the snoot but

Questions—Answers

Q—When was the first Hague Peace Conference called and by whom?

A—In 1889, at the instance of Czar Nicholas II of Russia.

Q—Is the earth nearer the sun in the winter or the summer?

A—In the winter. The Northern Hemisphere has its summer when the earth is about 3,000,000 miles farther away from the sun than at any other season.

Q—Where did the phrase "dog in the manger" originate?

A—Aesop told the story of the dog that could not eat hay in the manger, but who growled at the horse anyway. Hence the phrase is used to describe those who keep others from using something which they themselves cannot use.

We (journalists) are not handling the depth, not illuminating the background. Our handling of the news has given the lie the same prominence and impact that truth is given.

For over 20 years Communist infiltration in high places in government was easy. It's a little different now but that doesn't mean the Communists have quit.

—Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

Luncheon Platter

You can arrange such a pretty luncheon platter with hard-cooked eggs, canned beets and steamed cauliflower. Devil the eggs and marinate the sliced or diced beets; make a sauce for the cauliflower of mayonnaise seasoned with a dash of curry powder. Arrange all three foods on crisp greens, garnishing with sprigs of parsley and paprika. Serve with hot biscuits and tea or coffee.

Giraffes have a "rolling gallop." In this, they touch legs to the ground on one side, then touch the other two legs.

The man who never tries to fix the weather

The man behind the bar may complain about the weather . . . but like Mark Twain he's found that nothing much can be done about it.

Besides, the bartender today has more interesting things to talk about. He has to be sharp on national affairs, world topics, even inter-planetary projects to keep up with his customers.

Also, he's found that his customers' taste for Ballantine Ale and Beer doesn't depend on weather. They're acceptable subjects to talk about—and to enjoy—regardless of the thermometer. If your bartender's wise, he's already proved that to you.

Conflicting Data On Slaying Has Police Baffled

Richmond, Calif., Nov. 12 (AP)—Police investigating a weird, brutal slaying wrestled today with contradictory statements of a terrified wife who found her husband's battered body in bed beside her and of a salesman nabbed in her car.

Mrs. Rowena Johnson, 40, was awakened early yesterday when officers telephoned to say they had just halted her auto after a wild chase through three cities.

"The man we stopped said you had loaned him the car," said the officer.

"Just a moment. I'll ask my husband," Mrs. Johnson said sleepily.

Then she screamed....she had discovered her husband's body, punctured by 82 stab wounds, his head bashed in.

Inspector Darrell Davis reported Mrs. Johnson said she had become reconciled a few days ago with her husband, Larry Johnson, 41, a merchant seaman.

They had a few drinks, she said, and retired early.

She awoke about midnight, saw a dim figure in the bedroom, then blacked out until the telephone call.

Harry D. Waller, 42, an Oakland sewing machine salesman, was booked for investigation of murder. He was captured in Mrs. Johnson's car after he crashed into a deadend street after a 12-mile chase during which police fired five shots.

Officers said the car contained a bloody knife, blood-encrusted hammer, jacket and towel.

Davis said Waller denied any knowledge of the slaying or acquaintance with Johnson. He said Waller insisted he visited Mrs. Johnson, had a few drinks and left about 3 a. m. with permission to use her car.

Davis said officers found in Waller's Oakland apartment a certificate indicating he had been paroled in 1950 from the Georgia state prison on a burglary charge.

Davis quoted Mrs. Johnson as saying she made a trip to Atlanta with Waller last month but left him and returned to her husband.

Caudle Quizzed

Un-American Activities Committee said that as soon as Reps. Donald Jackson (R-Calif.) and Doyle (D-Calif.) arrive in Washington he will "call a meeting of all members to discuss the questions growing out of the coming hearings."

Chairman Velde (R-Ill.) of the Un-American Activities Committee told newsmen two of his committeemen, Rep. Doyle (D-Calif.) and Rep. Kearney (R-N. Y.), may be unavailable for some time. He said "it now appears unlikely" his group will go ahead with its announced plans to question Truman tomorrow.

Talked With Doyle

Velde said he had talked by telephone with Doyle in California; Kearney is in a hospital for a check-up.

The Un-American Activities chairman declined to comment on reports that the entire investigation may be put off until next year as some Democratic members have suggested.

Rep. Walter of Pennsylvania, senior Democrat on the committee, said Velde was "getting his instructions" from the Republican National Committee. A GOP committee spokesman, without saying how he knew, said Velde was not expected at headquarters yesterday.

Officials there, however, made it plain they did not applaud the way Velde had hustled out subpoenas.

There were some indications, although no one was talking for publication, that the House group might wind up accepting a suggesion by Walter that any public hearings be put off until Congress reconvenes in January.

Hearings now, it was felt, might put Truman in the spotlight in the minds of many as a political martyr—but one who could be expected to come out fighting charges he termed "ridiculous" when Brownell first made them.

Bulgaria Hits U. S. Aid Plans With Pakistan

Istanbul, Turkey, Nov. 12 (AP)—Communist Bulgaria's radio launched an attack today on reported United States-Pakistan negotiations aimed at securing American military bases in Pakistan in exchange for defense aid.

The broadcast by radio Sofia charged American "militarists and imperialists" were preparing for war against the Soviet Union. The commentator said Pakistan was "very willing" to trade bases for weapons.

Pakistan and British informants in London reported yesterday that the negotiations were now underway.

In Washington, however, U. S. officials said no negotiations were actually in progress with Pakistan although the defense of the Middle East is getting top level consideration.

FBI Fingerprints May Settle Marsh Death

Clinton, Ky., Nov. 12 (AP)—An FBI fingerprint report today may determine whether Thomas John Marsh, a prominent figure in the $600,000 Greenlease kidnaping, died in an auto crash near here.

State police said almost all evidence indicated Marsh was the hitch-hiker, dressed in work clothes and penniless, who was killed last Saturday.

Marsh was tied in with the kidnaping of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease last month by Carl Austin Hall, 34, after Hall was arrested at St. Louis with some of the ransom money.

Hall first claimed March killed the boy but later confessed that he and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41, engineered the plot. The body of young Greenlease, son of a millionaire Kansas City auto dealer, was found Oct. 7 in a shallow grave in St. Joseph, Mo., nine days after he was taken from school.

The first tip that the hitch-hiker might be Marsh came from an unidentified woman who telephoned a funeral home here Saturday, inquiring about tattoo marks on the body.

State police began checking and when the similarities showed up sent the victim's fingerprints to the FBI in Washington.

Later, the funeral home received a telephone call from Nelson W. Winter, who identified himself as Marsh's brother-in-law, and said he would be in Clinton today.

The hitch-hiker was killed when the car in which he was riding collided head-on with another.

Indians Working On Plan to Screen Korean Prisoners

Panmunjom, Nov. 12 (AP)—The Indian command today worked on detailed plans for screening Chinese and Korean war prisoners if the Communists abandon efforts to woo them home.

Red interviews with prisoners who have refused repatriation were canceled for the eighth straight day when the Communists repeated their demand to see 356 POWs who skipped by stalling persuaders last Thursday.

Official quarters said the Red move appeared to be merely a maneuver while the Communist high command decides whether to go along with new Indian rules for running the interviews or torpedo the explanation program.

Ready to Go to Kaesong

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the neutral nations repatriation commission was ready for a trip to Communist headquarters at Kaesong whenever the Reds' answer is ready.

There was no word from the Communists.

Thimayya has told the Reds to interview entire compounds of 500 men each in a day or skip those who are not interviewed.

Chinese in compound C22, called out last Thursday to wait while Communist explainers interviewed only 136, have refused to come out again.

The Swiss member of the Repatriation Commission has threatened to walk out if force is used on the prisoners.

Speculation Increases

There has been increasing speculation that the Communists are anxious to find an excuse for calling off the explanation program which has cost them a stinging propaganda defeat. Only three per cent of the prisoners interviewed have agreed to return home.

Thimayya has said Indian troops will be used to screen remaining POWs if the Reds call off the interviews.

Elsewhere, diplomatic staff advisers held their sixth secret session in an effort to draw up an agenda for talks to arrange a Korean peace conference.

Kenneth Young, chief United Nations staff negotiator, said the 55-minute meeting was "very businesslike." He would say nothing more, except that another session was set for 11 a. m. Friday (9 p. m., EST, Thursday).

No Favors, Says McKay

Chicago, Nov. 12 (AP) — Secretary of the Interior McKay told the petroleum industry today not to seek "special favors" in the form of government curbs on oil imports. McKay, in a talk prepared for the American Petroleum Institute's annual convention, stressed that such restrictions might weaken friendly oil-producing nations whose economies this country has been trying to strengthen. He said the oil industry has "never asked for special favors" and added: "I'd like to see the record stand that way."

Taylor Says Parley

where they stand "on an issue as fundamental as this."

Referring to a statement by Wicks that all the evidence in his case would not be presented until the Senate convened, Taylor said it would be "shocking if there is evidence on this matter which he concealed from the people in his 30-minute broadcast."

After refusing Dewey's request Oct. 12 for his immediate resignation, Wicks made radio and television broadcasts giving his reasons for his visits to Fay. The lawmaker contended his object was to obtain aid in preventing labor troubles in his district.

Taylor observed yesterday that while he could not speak for the executive committee, he believed it to be the judgment of the members of the Republican party, as well as of citizens of the state generally, that Wicks' visits "will not be approved as proper conduct for a public officer."

Democrats Plan To Reactivate Here

Last evening 144 professional and business men of the city met at the Hotel Stuyvesant for the purpose of discussing plans to "reactivate" the Democratic party in the city of Kingston. The meeting was called by Ray W. Garraghan and Attorney Arthur B. Ewig was named chairman of the meeting.

Attending the meeting were several prominent members of the party including Eugene B. Carey, former mayor of Kingston; Ernest Heppner, former candidate for alderman-at-large; County Chairman Thomas Plunket; James A. Betts, a former city treasurer and assessor of the city; Lawrence Quilty, Sam N. Mann, N. Jansen Fowler, Francis J. O'Neil, former candidate for mayor; Walter Donnaruma, Richard Riseley, Gerald E. FitzGerald, recent Democratic candidate for mayor, and Donald Riehl.

A committee was authorized to confer with County Chairman Plunket on plans to strengthen the organization of the Democratic party in the city. This committee will be named by Chairman Ewig and the committee will report back within 30 days to the membership of the organization.

Democratic supervisors and aldermen elect of the city were also present at the meeting. Also attending the meeting as the only out of the city representative was Supervisor John J. Gaffney of the town of Lloyd who was re-elected at the recent election. Gaffney spoke on the political organization which had been effected in his town.

Elected to Congress

Glenard P. Lipscomb, Republican, defeated two Democrats and a second Republican to win the special congressional election in California's 24th district, replacing Republican Norris Poulson who resigned to become mayor of Los Angeles.

Geary Re-elected By Market Group

John S. Geary of Wawarsing was re-elected chairman of the Ulster County Production and Marketing Administration committee at the county convention held in Kingston on Monday night.

Edward M. Wood of Milton was elected vice chairman and Valentine K. Garrison of Wallkill was elected third committee member. George Bedell of Big Indian and Daniel A. Gaffney of Highland were named alternates.

The committeemen, elected by delegates from each farming community in Ulster county, will administer the 1954 Agricultural Conservation Program, price support operations, acreage allotments and marketing quotas.

FROM STAGE TO PLANE—James W. (Dad) Montee, 91, of Los Angeles, rides with the times. The one-time Kansas stagecoach driver, who is now a licensed pilot, recently flew this U. S. Air Force P33 jet trainer at a galloping 500 m.p.h.

Lunch Box Idea

An egg and olive spread will make delicious sandwiches for the lunchbox. Mash the hard-cooked eggs and mix with chopped pimiento-stuffed olives; now add enough mayonnaise to moisten and salt and pepper to taste. Layer this spread between slices of whole wheat bread. A vacuum bottle of cream of tomato soup makes a good send-along for these sandwiches.

Flour made from acorns is eatable, but only after it has been thoroughly soaked in boiling water.

Quirino Concedes

the Philippines has ever experienced, insured "that our free institutions will survive and flourish for generations to come."

Thanks Quirino

He thanked Quirino for his good wishes and called on all Filipinos "to work together as one people" during the next four years.

Magsaysay said he would enter the President's office "with humility" and "dedication to the nation and with a prayer to Almighty God for his continued love and guidance."

Magsaysay appeared to be carrying into office with him Nacionalista candidates for all eight Senate seats at stake in the election. And incomplete returns indicated his coalition would win control of the House of Representatives. All of the 102 congressional seats were filled Tuesday.

Magsaysay bolted President Quirino's Liberal party and resigned as defense secretary eight months ago after disputing with the Chief Executive over the conduct of the government's anti-Huk campaign.

Magsaysay demanded firmer action against the rebels who spread a reign of terror over parts of the islands, and favored resettling captured insurgents on undeveloped land on Mindanao Island.

He declared that official corruption, even while he was fighting the Huks, created more communism and nullified his battle.

Johnston Is Pleased With Talks So Far

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—Eric Johnston said today he is encouraged by his first talks with Arab and Israeli leaders on a proposed unified development of the Jordan river.

The 121 million dollar plan placed before the United Nations recently with the support of the United States would irrigate areas in Israel, Syria and Jordan now torn by bitter frontier strife.

Johnston told newsmen upon his arrival at Idlewild Airport that unified development "of the Jordan river is the key to the lock which will open the door to a solution of the dispute" between Arab nations and Israel in the Middle East.

As a special representative of President Eisenhower, Johnston spent three weeks in the Middle East.

"We have the beginning of a positive and constructive program," Johnston said.

"The only thing we tried to do was to present this program to the nations involved and to ask that they consider it and talk it over with me after the first of the year when I return.

"In this we were completely successful. Each nation agreed to study the program and give it consideration. We didn't expect them to buy it sight unseen. However, we have every reason to be encouraged."

Johnston said he plans to go to Washington tomorrow to prepare his report which he will discuss with the President and Secretary of State Dulles next Tuesday.

Anglo Columnist Lauds U. S. Workers

London, Nov. 12 (AP)—A columnist for the London Daily Mirror, whose week day circulation is world's biggest, declared today the American worker makes his British counterpart look like Rip Van Winkle.

"The British workman — long launded as the finest in the world—is no longer the finest," said William Neil Connor, who recently returned from a tour of the United States.

"He is often one of the laziest. He is also inefficient and opposed to change.

"The American works harder. He is more interested in the job. He is more adaptable. These are sweeping assertions —but they are true."

Italians Hope Pella May Ease Trieste Situation

Rome, Nov. 12 (AP)—Premier Giuseppe Pella flew to Turkey today on a friend-making flight that many Italians apparently hoped would somehow help ease the troubled Trieste situation.

The Italian press dedicated columns to the journey.

Pella, just before boarding a special plane with a staff of aides, said he was confident his official visit would tighten the friendly relations already existing between Italy and Turkey.

Although his visit was arranged before bloody rioting blazed at Trieste last week bringing death to six persons the Christian Democrats' Il Popolo of Rome commented "The trip comes happily at a moment whose opportuneness is evident."

Italy's collaboration with Turkey, said Pella's political party organ, "is one that does not suffer from the fact that Turkey maintains friendly relations with Italy, her ally, and with Yugoslavia, with which she (Turkey) has signed the Balkan pact."

Turkey and Greece are both allied with Yugoslavia in the Balkan pact and both are allied with Italy in NATO.

Medical President

telligence in the matter of accident prevention, perhaps the best solution would be to reverse to the primeval by junking our airplanes, automobiles, railroad trains, kitchen ranges, bathtubs, knives and forks and all of the other modern advances that were designed to make life more liveable," he said.

He contended that maintaining the nation's health is a "job that requires a combination of skills which can be obtained only through constant teamwork of physicians and voluntary agencies."

He cited, as an example of such teamwork, the crippled children's program in Indiana. Under this program, which he said costs the taxpayers "almost nothing," physicians perform professional services for less than $10,000 a year which "would cost more than $100,000 a year on a fee-for-service basis."

He contended that voluntary agencies are the nation's bulwark against federal domination in the field of health services.

Why We Say

We call professional people and office workers "white collar" workers today. The expression started when medicine became a respected profession and doctors began to wear white collars as part of their uniforms.

Rotary Observes Armistice Day

Armistice Day was observed Wednesday by the Kingston Rotary Club at its regular luncheon-meeting with an appropriate program including a most interesting talk by Major Mason Young, Jr., of West Point Military Academy. He was presented by William O'Reilly, program chairman.

Major Young discussed the mission of the United States Military Academy at West Point, the mission of the regular army and the mission of the schools and civic organizations in assisting young people to recognize and perform their duties as citizens.

A veteran of the Korean War, Major Young had high praise for the young people of today, whom he said were capable of defending our country. He paid tribute to their acts of heroism and devotion to duty on the battlefield.

Several guest pastors, who are visiting Kingston during the observance of World Methodist Evangelistic Mission, were presented by Dr. Ralph M. Houston.

James Byrne reported on a meeting in Ellenville, which was called for the purpose of securing area cooperation for better roads in this section of the state.

Soldiers' Yule Mail Decreases

A check at the local post office today on the volume of Christmas mail being sent overseas to members of the armed forces indicated a considerable reduction under that of last year, but the rush was reported as still substantial.

All Christmas packages for overseas shipment should be mailed before next Monday, Nov. 16, to guarantee arrival on time. Mail received after that date will be shipped out, but with no guarantee of delivery on time.

The volume of mail for overseas points is less this year than in 1952 because the Korean war was still in progress a year ago, and more men and women in all branches of the service were overseas.

Are Installing Meters

Work on installation of parking meters has been commenced at the Main street parking lot, adjacent to the county clerk's office. When meters are installed the same regulations now in force at the John street parking lot will be initiated, parking from one to three hours at a rate of five cents per hour.

Conn. Crash Report Comes From Philly

Westport, Conn., Nov. 12 (AP)—Connecticut state police learned about an auto accident on the Merritt Parkway near here early today from Philadelphia police.

The "round-about" report was the result of an intercepted broadcast by a "ham" radio operator in a mobile unit who was passing the scene of the crash in which a Bronx, N. Y., marine veteran suffered minor injuries.

A fellow "ham" in Philadelphia, some 200 miles away, heard the message and called his police department.

They informed state police here on an automatic printer. The elapsed time was less than 30 minutes.

Injured in the accident was Stephen Gardner of 611 East 137th street, Bronx, who was treated at Norwalk Hospital and released. He told police a tire on his car blew out, causing him to lose control of the vehicle and crash into a parkway overpass.

Court Rules on Telecasts

Philadelphia, Nov. 12 (AP)—U. S. District Court ruled today that the National Football League has the right to prevent telecasting of other league games into the area where a home team is playing, but may not legally restrict the games televised there when the home team is playing away. The opinion by Judge Alan K. Grim held that all the league's restrictions on radio broadcasts of football games are illegal. Judge Grim described professional football as "a unique type of business."

Splendid Results Listed on Mission By Bishop Newell

The United Evangelistic Mission begun last Sunday has achieved outstanding results in this area, according to Bishop Frederick B. Newell of the New York Area of the Methodist Church. At the half-way point in this week's Mission, 6,640 commitments have been received after three days of visitation.

Total results for both phases of the mission in the New York area now stand at 19,000 commitments, surpassing all other areas where the mission has been held, except one.

Evening services, in each Methodist Church will conclude Friday night, Nov. 13. In St. James Methodist Church, Dr. Walter Eyester will preach on I Still Believe In the Dawn. Dr. J. J. Davies, guest pastor at Trinity Methodist Church will speak on the subject "Methodism in the Holy Catholic Church" and will use colored slides to illustrate his subject. In Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, Dr. Charles W. Kessler has announced as his subject Jesus Christ—The Same Yesterday, Today, and Forever.

Visitation to Continue

Visitation of prospective members will continue at regular intervals after the close of the mission. Laymen in many churches have expressed a desire to make the program of Visitation Evangelism an established habit throughout the year. The need for a continuation of Visitation Evangelism was sharply defined on Wednesday morning when leaders of the mission announced that there were still over 25,000 prospective members remaining in the area.

In the Kingston district, between 200 and 240 commitments to Christ and His Church have been received each day as a result of visitation by laymen.

Meetings Scheduled

The public is invited to remaining evening services in each Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. Three victory mass meetings are being scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 15, at strategic points in the area. Persons from Kingston and vicinity will attend the mass meeting at Trinity Methodist Church, Newburgh, at 7:30 p. m., where Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, noted author, popular radio preacher, and pastor of Christ Church in New York, will preach.

Not Brother, She Says

Clinton, Ky., Nov. 12 (AP)—A woman representing herself as the sister of Thomas John Marsh, once linked to the Greenlease kidnaping case, said today a hitchhiker killed in an auto crash near here and believed to be Marsh was not her brother. Meanwhile, a sister of Henry Epperly, Hannibal, Mo., missing from his home four months, called last night and suggested the victim might be her brother. The caller, Mrs. Helen Doke, is on her way here.

Red Cross Volunteer Delivers Supplies

Mrs. William H. Merrill, who has been a member of the Red Cross Volunteer Motor Service for 12 years, is shown delivering supplies for the local chapter.

Motor Service members are careful, courteous and expert drivers who have been trained in first aid. Last year the 11 members comprising the service gave 341 hours of service and drove 4,526 miles.

Their activities included the transportation of children to and from the Cerebral Palsy clinics two days a week, Mondays and Wednesdays. Veterans were given transportation to hospitals and indigent persons were given transportation for medical care.

Motor Service members assisted in disaster by transporting disaster relief personnel and supplies. Home Service workers in the chapter were furnished transportation on their tour of calls.

Each time the bloodmobile visited Kingston and in the county, Motor Service members were busy moving supplies and driving donors to and from the blood center.

"In other words," Mrs. Merrill said, "Motor Service members answer all calls to keep the other programs in the chapter moving. However, more volunteer members are needed if Red Cross is to continue to give these various services to the community.

"If you are between the ages of 18 and 50 and consider yourself a good driver, use your skill to help others. Call the Red Cross chapter and volunteer to serve in Motor Service a few hours a week." (Freeman Photo)

Summitville Man Held for Car Theft

Vasileios Alexopoulos, 18, of Summitville, was arrested at his home this morning on a grand larceny charge in connection with the reported theft of an automobile.

State police of the Ellenville station accused Alexopoulos of taking an automobile from the parking lot at the Channel Master plant at Ellenville at 2:30 a. m. today, driving it to Wurtsboro and abandoning it along Route 17. He then hitchhiked home, troopers alleged.

The vehicle reported stolen was a 1950 automobile belonging to Arthur Keener of Pine Bush, employed at Channel Master on the midnight to 8 a. m. shift, troopers said.

Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Herbert Poppel of Kerhonkson, Alexopoulos waived examination and was ordered held for grand jury action.

Alarm Is Sent Out

Congers, Nov. 12 (AP)—State and local police have put out a statewide alarm for Frank Randazzo, 30, who left during last Friday's snowstorm on a deer hunting trip to Saranac Lake and has not been heard from since. Randazzo, an iron worker employed on the thruway bridge being constructed over the Hudson river between Nyack and Tarrytown, was due back here Monday morning. He left Friday afternoon in his two-tone 1948 sedan. Police today began a search of Route 9W between here and Saranac.

Specialists Are Assigned

Sandhofen, Germany, Nov. 12 (AP)—Eight American civilian specialists on ammunition production are being temporarily assigned to speed up deliveries on $1,300,000,000 worth of U. S. Army contracts in 15 European countries, it was announced here today.

Bolivian Officials Say Coup Leaders Hide Out

La Paz, Bolivia, Nov. 12 (AP)—Bolivian officials say the leader of Monday's abortive coup and 13 other political revolutionists have taken refuge in the Uruguayan Legation to avoid arrest. Two others are reported holding out in the Venezuelan Embassy.

Police and armed civilians ringed Uraguay's Legation after Oscar Unzaga De La Vega, chief of the Bolivian Socialist Falange Party—a rightist group—sought asylum there yesterday.

President Victor Paz Estenssoro blamed Unzaga's right-wing faction for the attempted revolt, in which 23 persons were reported killed and 40 wounded.

U.S. Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind.) and his senatorial group, caught in the outbreak while here to study the American aid program, flew on to Chile, arriving at Santiago today.

Two More Jurors Secured in Perry Morals Case Here

Two additional jurors were secured this morning in county court where resumption of the trial of Fred Perry, Sr., of town of Ulster, was taken up after the Armistice Day recess of court. Eight jurors have been accepted, two men and six women.

Perry is charged with violation of Section 483, Sub. 2, which deals with corruption or impairment of the morals of minors and also abduction. There are three charges of violation of Section 483 and three charges of abduction contained in the indictment.

Three Are Involved

It is charged that Perry violated the law between January 22, 1953 and February 24, 1953, in that he permitted young girls between the ages of 11 and 15 to engage in improper conduct. The abduction charge is based on the allegation that girls under the age of 18 were used for immoral purposes. The charges involve three individuals ranging in age from 11 to 15 and the dates specified in the indictment are January 22, 1953, February 21, 1953 and February 24, 1953. Some of the individuals who will be called to testify for the prosecution, according to District Attorney Howard C. St. John, have since been committed to institutions for rehabilitation.

Joseph Avis appears for the defendant Perry.

There are also pending four other similar cases arising out of the same circumstances in which indictments have been returned by the grand jury against other defendants.

Gas Blamed for Death

New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 12 (AP)—State pathologists today informed Medical Examiner William Rosen that the death of William G. Schoonover, 49, wealthy Yonkers, N. Y., real estate man, was due to inhalation of carbon monoxide gas. The body of Schoonover, who owned large mill property here, was found beside his parked automobile here on Oct. 27. The car's motor was running.

Gets $10,000 Bracelet

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—A $10,000 diamond bracelet was turned over by police today to the man who found it in a mid-town theatre last year. Barry Bond, 26, then assistant manager of the Normandie Theatre, found the bracelet Oct. 11, 1952 when he stepped on it. He kept it in the theatre safe for two weeks and when no one reported losing it, Bond turned the bracelet over to police.

Topics Prepared For Scout Meeting

Operations Skywatch, individual discussion groups for Scout and Cub Scout leaders, six operating committee discussion courses, and monthly reports will be on the agenda of the monthly meeting of the Kingston District of the Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America, scheduled for the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Wurts street, Monday evening, November 16, at 7:45 o'clock.

Sgt. Allen Nemlich, Mrs. Dewey Logan, and Mrs. George Matthews will be present at the meeting for the Operations Skywatch which will feature a film presentation of "One Plane—One Bomb."

Conducting the Cub leaders discussion will be Carl Wiegert, Cubmaster of Pack 7. Scoutmaster Jonathan Clark of Troop 8, will conduct the Scout leaders group. Both of these discussions will center around the themes for December for the scout age groups.

Discussion Leaders

The six operating committee discussion tables will be led by Ralph Harper, organization and extension, Richard Gendreau, advancement, Frank Bourke, camping, Hugo Schlatter, health and safety, Julius Kirschner, finance, and John Levy, training.

All adult scout leaders for both Boy and Cub Scout groups, including committeemen, Institutional Representatives, Scout and Cubmasters and assistants, and Den Mothers are urged to attend these monthly meetings. The local scout office has also pointed out that scout leaders are supposed to wear their uniforms to all meetings pertaining to the Scouting movement.

VFW Post Forming Own Blood Bank

Joyce-Schirick Post 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at a recent meeting voted to sponsor its own blood program for members and ladies of the VFW Auxiliary. Under this plan every member is eligible whether he is physically able to donate blood or not, according to Commander Hubert Richter.

Richter stressed that in an organization the size of the VFW the members should be called upon to donate blood only once every two years. However, there would be available immediately for them or any member of their immediate families a complete supply of blood at any time. This blood would be made available for any member anywhere in the continental limits of the United States at no cost.

The current price of blood is considerably high and not covered by any form of hospitalization insurance, Richter stressed. There is no limit to the quantity or number of times that a member of the organization or his immediate family may call for and receive blood, he said.

Urges All to Join

Richter reported that the members of the VFW have received application blanks for membership in the blood bank and urges all members to fill them in and return them at once. While membership in the VFW is a prerequisite to membership in the blood bank, membership in the blood bank is purely voluntary and application must be made to join the plan. If one is unable to be a blood donor for any reason he is still eligible for membership in the blood bank and entitled to receive any needed blood for himself or his family.

Richter requested all members to join the plan. If the application blank has been lost or misplaced, Richter said that membership may be obtained by the individual mailing to the post home a request for membership signed by the applicant stating in effect, "I hereby apply for membership in the VFW blood bank program and agree to abide by all the rules and regulations of the plan."

Chinese Are Happy

Taipeh, Formosa, Nov. 12 (AP)—The election of Ramon Magsaysay to the Philippines presidency was greeted with obvious satisfaction by Chinese Nationalist officials today but there was no official comment. Informed sources said it was felt that Magsaysay's election would bolster the anti-Communist front among nations of the Pacific.

As Pegler Sees It

he bore no ill-will because, he said, "after that story, I had it coming."

Mr. Porter writes affectionately of the late Ellen Egan, a society reporter who straightened Damon out, a reformation that lasted until he died, as a prior condition to their marriage.

"She was a fine girl, very popular and highly respected by everybody on the paper," he writes. "She was actually responsible for most of the success which he achieved. She talked him into getting out of Denver and away from his bad associates, including me.

"Al," the name by which Runyon was known in those days, "had some good qualities and excuses had to be made for his bad ones. He was dragged up by his father, an itinerant printer, his mother dying when he was a little kid. When I loafed around with him he was either very drunk or cold sober. There was no middle ground.

"Once when he was picked up for drunk and disorderly, Judge Ben Stapleton gave him 10 days in the city jail. Al had written a story about Pete Larson, the jailor, calling him Petty Larceny. Al got the works. The boys would sit across from the jail on the curb alongside McGovern's saloon and pass the bottle to bedevil Al, as, with pants rolled up and in his bare feet, he hosed out the stalls of the patrol wagon horses.

"Senator Tom Patterson, a real fighter, owned the Rocky Mountain News. Loan shark garnishments used to pile up on the cashier every pay day. Patterson, we learned later, told the business manager to ignore them because he was planning to run the sharks out of Denver.

"Runyon heard of Patterson's orders and got into every shark in town for all he could get. Patterson forced the calling of a grand jury, got usury indictments and raised so much hell that every shark went out of business. If Runyon had been a gentleman he would have let us all in on the harvest.

"Your mention of Bill Halligan (now at the Actors' Home, Woodland Hills, Calif.) revives old memories and as for Hamish McLaurin," the author of a learned library book interpreting Oriental esoterics for western minds, "I can't say enough. He deservedly stood high with everybody but traveled a few planes higher than I did. Gene Fowler was just coming along as a most promising freshman in the art of conviviality."

Fowler, in a seizure of sentimentality, wrote a sweet memoir about Damon a couple of years ago wherein he revived a folk-tale of Denver journalism about four Chinamen, a steward at the press club and three partners in a hand laundry who, of course, slept under the counter and saved their money, who are supposed to have staked Runyon to the transportation for himself and Ellen to New York.

It is as hardy as it is picturesque but equally erroneous. For Hamish McLaurin, who loved Al Runyon all his years and reveled in his success, quietly remarked to me one night in the Arizona desert after Al was gone, "you are looking at the four Chinamen who sent Al Runyon to New York."

Rules for Leading Are Worth Knowing

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Whole books have been written about the opening lead, but nobody pays much attention to the leader's partner. If he gets a chance to lead, later on, which suit should he lead?

If you find yourself in this position you may get some help from two general rules. "Lead up to weakness," says one rule. In other words, pick out the dummy's weakest suit and lead that suit in the hope that your partner has some strength behind the declarer. "Return your partner's opening lead," says the other rule.

This rule was so highly regarded in the old days of whist that there were only two acceptable reasons for failing to return your partner's suit—lack of any card in the suit, and sudden death.

Neither of these rules should be followed slavishly. By the time you win your trick, you've had a chance to look at the dummy. Perhaps you have also found out something about declarer's hand. Use all such information to pick the most effective lead instead of relying on general rules. For example, put yourself in East's place in the hand shown today.

West opened the four of clubs, and dummy won with the jack. Declarer thought for a second or two and then led dummy's low club to the ace and returned a low trump towards dummy. West played low, dummy played the jack, and East won with the queen of spades.

It was now up to East to find the most effective return lead. If he led up to dummy's weakness he would return a heart; and if he returned his partner's suit, he would lead a club. Either lead would allow declarer to win, draw trumps safely, and knock out the ace of diamonds at leisure.

Instead of blindly following a general rule, East thought about the actual hand. It seemed clear to him that declarer did not have the ace of trumps. If South had the ace of trumps he would not have bothered to lead a club to his hand before attacking the trump suit; nor would he have taken a trump finesse on the first round of that suit.

On the basis of this reasoning, East decided that his partner had the ace of trumps. He then proceeded to violate all general rules by leading the ace and another diamond, right up to dummy's strength.

Now declarer was dead. He led a trump, but West won with the ace and led a third diamond, which East trumped, to set the contract.

THE RUMINATOR

By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

A Column of Contrary Opinion

Those of a conservative turn-of-mind who have passed through the past 20 years contentedly and prosperously are those who—

a) Attempted to understand the prevailing socio-political philosophy, and

b) Who, as my friend and mentor Bob Smithley says, learned to adjust themselves to the irrevocable trends.

With that introduction, to set the spirit of this piece, the Ruminator would like to touch on two contrary thoughts which we should consider as we head into winter—and into another important election year.

1. It is said that the voters last fall voted for "a change."

This is undoubtedly true, but people did not vote, you may be sure, for a change in their economic well-being.

People demanded a change in the administration of government affairs, in the so-called softness toward communism and in the sub-standard morals that ruled in public office. Likewise, they voted for lower taxes and for other hoped-for things that would benefit them personally. (They did not vote, obviously, for lower farm prices or for lower wages—only for lower prices of the things they wished to buy!)

In plain language, people were human and voted for selfish interests; but, to repeat, for no change from prosperity to recession. You can bet your pay check on that.

So let us first get contrarily straight on this "they-voted-for-a-change" business.

2. Equally important—perhaps more so, from an economic standpoint—is the highly propagandized idea of sound money. And its sister term, "honest money."

Now when you get down to cases, there is no difference in our money now from what it was under the New Deal or the Fair Deal. You might say, there's no difference, only some more of the same.

What is sound and honest money? Those in favor of Managed Money would say that our money is sound and honest now; that it has been during the past 20 years.

The gold-standard school naturally asserts that no irredeemable currency is either sound or honest. If your money is not convertible into gold, according to their views, the monetary standard is highly unsound and merely based upon "promises to pay" which may be abrogated at any time when an actual or assumed emergency arises.

When you turn to the factor which is called "monetizing the debt" what do you find? (Let us insert that by monetizing the debt the economists refer to the absorption by the banks, especially by the central banks, of government securities which in turn permit inflation of credit. When credit is extended, bank deposits increase; and in this modern age bank deposits — or "check money" — are money. Thus, you have the situation of the banks "manufacturing" money, or monetizing the debt.)

What, to repeat, do you find the present administration doing about this practice of monetizing the debt? You find that they have gone farther than the New-and-Fair Deals; that the Federal Reserve bank holdings of government securities have been higher each month since the Republicans have been in office than in the corresponding months of 1952. The Federal Reserve banks, and all banks together, now hold some two billion dollars more government securities than a year ago.

So you see, there's no change in monetary practice, only a little more of the same.

And as this is written the Federal Reserve is continuing to buy government securities — bought another $50 million last week.

It is important to note these things because you're not going to revert to the horse-and-buggy days, or to see the government bringing on a deflation. In fact, you are probably going to experience just about what we have experienced, only under a different label. The elections recently made the fact rather clear, I should guess!

So the Ruminator thinks we should keep our minds clear on the "philosophy" of government and not go off half-cocked. You will hear a lot of talk, of course, about balancing budgets, keeping our money "sound," and so on, but so long as we exist in a war atmosphere—and in a political atmosphere that demands "liberalism"—you won't see much change in the socio-economic fields.

Per capita consumption of paper in the United States is about 13 times the world average.

Scouts Take Seal Posters as Their Part in Campaign

Boy Scouts in Kingston, under the leadership of Richard Stewart, visited the headquarters of the Ulster County TB and Health Association today, and later left with Christmas Seals Posters which they will put in stores, factories and office buildings. The posters will be displayed during the Christmas Seals Sale which opens Nov. 10 to raise funds for the TB control program of the association.

"This is only one of the many public services which Scouts perform in this community," said James L. Rowe, Christmas Seals chairman in thanking the boys. We feel honored that the Scouts have chosen Armistice Day and their holiday to carry on this project for our TB Association in the program of health education, promotion and demonstration of worthwhile health projects in Ulster county. They, as well as their leaders, know that Christmas Seals funds are used to finance these various health projects in Ulster county."

Debt of Gratitude

Editor, The Freeman:

We, the pastor and members of the Church of the Nazarene in Kingston feel an inestimable debt of gratitude to our many friends who have shown kindnesses to us during the months following the time of the collapse of our church building, June 10, 1951, and would like to take this means to express our thanks.

Many churches offered the use of facilities, and our regular services were conducted in the Parish Hall of the Church of the Holy Cross. The gifts of friends, in excess of four thousand dollars, helped substantially in the reconstruction.

We recognize, as we come to the time of dedication, that this edifice represents not just the efforts of a few, but the prayers, faith, and sacrifice of many, many people of the city and area; and our prayer is that God shall use the facilities of the church to unselfishly serve to make the community a better place to live. Through this means we seek to repay this debt of gratitude.

Sincerely,
JOHN CLAYTON,
Sec't., Board of Trustees.
FREDERICK F. FIKE,
Pastor.

Asks Neutrality Right

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, president of the United Nation General Assembly, says India wants the right to remain neutral in the East-West conflict and live her own life. India admires what America stands for, she told a meeting of Women in World Affairs yesterday, but "she doesn't want to be an imitation of you." "She wants the right to decide her own life and to determine her own relation to the rest of the world," Mrs. Pandit continued. "Her way may not suit you. It may suit some one else.  Each country lives in its own way."

Skunks Get Charter

Saugerties, Nov. 11—The Deodorized Order of the Skunk, Schneider's Aroma Chapter 85, held a special meeting at Schneider's Hotel on the Saguerties-Kingston road in Glenerie Sunday afternoon. The official charter of Schneider's Aroma bearing the names of 63 charter members was presented at an impressive ceremony during this meeting. Distinguished notables of Cedar Aroma of Kingston who were also present at the ceremonies included Joseph Kelly, alderman-at-large, and Mr. Hoffman. After the presentation program, a social evening which included an abundance of refreshments and entertainment was enjoyed by the many members and guests. Officers of the Aroma include Joseph W. Schiavone, grand stinker; Jennie Lee, vice-grand stinker; Fred W. Budion, recording stinky; Joseph Rometa, financial skunk; Harry Schneider, mouffette hilare; Estelle Amarella, rhythm skunk; Everett Short, odoriferous stinker; William R. Dunn, scentinel. There were 56 of the 63 charter members present for the presentation.

Food Sale Planned

Saugerties, Nov. 11—The Cheerful Workers of the Blue Mountain Reformed Church are planning a food sale to be held at Keenan and Sons store, Partition street Saturday, Nov. 14 at 10 a. m. Plans for the sale were set at last Wednesday's meeting which was presided by Mrs. Lewis Gaylord. Friends and members were urged to contribute items such as baked goods, pickles, salads, and jellies. Transportation for the sale items could be arranged by phoning 873M1 of Mrs. Gaylord. At this meeting Mrs. Floyd Myer was appointed foreign missionary for the group and Mrs. Harry Freligh was chosen for domestic missionary advisor. The meeting was concluded with the serving of refreshments by Mrs. Delphine Hommel and Mrs. Lewis Gaylord.

Student Council

Officers of this year's Student Council include James Perry, president; Jerome Singer, vice-president; Penelope Johnson, secretary; Carol Gaise, treasurer and Miss Adiska Conro, advisor. Installation for the officers was held Nov. 6.

The Student Council represents the student body and carries on any duties considered necessary for the welfare of the school. Meetings are held frequently at which time simple parliamentary procedure is learned and necessary business conducted. Reports of these meetings are taken back to the home rooms by the representatives.

Members and alternates for Rooms 1 through 42 follow:

Patrick Sangaline, Sandra Tremper; Ruth Simmons, Mary Sickler; Bentley Jenson, Janet Kaercher; Marvin Engle, Ronald Quarantino; Enid Goetchius, Bonnie McElrath; Donald Avallone, Jean Wolf; Evelyn Peterson, Patricia Rosinski; Jean Keith, Doris Urell; Joseph Ambrose, James Keator; Judson Emerick, Teresa Turck; Raymond Peterson, John Borcherdt; Dorothy Snell, Julia Garraghan; Joseph Gillen, Jerry Sampson; Robert Sleight, Louis Quarantino; Lois Van Aken, Robert Winchell; Joan Ellsworth, Lawrence Hyatt; Donna Albright, James Dickson; Ronald Constable, John Hines; Donald Krueger, Peter Kelderhouse; Vincent Turck, Fred Donahue; Stanley Beaver, Vernon Stoutenburg; Beverly Mooers, Mark Feldman; Michaela Fallon, Stephen Treasaloni; Robert Quarantino, Barbara Schellhammer.

On Oct. 30, four delegates of the Student Council attended the DUSO Student Council conference at the local high school. After an address by Frederic Snyder, world traveler and lecturer, each of the representatives attended a workshop session. Local delegates were James Perry, Jerome Singer, Lois Van Aken and Joseph Gillen.

A committee consisting of Carol Gaise, Marvin Engle, Jean Keith and Judson Emerick has been appointed to select movies for assembly programs.

School Paper Editors

Chatter, the MJM school paper, is published the second week of each month.

The staff is composed of the following workers:

Suffern Skirmish Seems to Be Over; Pact Agreed Upon

Bear Mountain, Nov. 12 (AP)—The skirmish between the village of Suffern and the New York State Thruway Authority seems over.

The tussle started eight days ago when the thruway sent workmen to Suffern for test borings to reroute polluted Ramapo river wells.

Village police showed up with guns, with orders to fire if any workers trespassed on Suffern soil. They did no shooting.

The thruway authorities contended they had to reroute the Ramapo at that point because there wasn't enough room between the hills for the river, the thruway, a railroad and several old highways.

The dispute entered the legal stage when the village attorney filed a petition in Albany enjoining all thruway construction around Suffern. It was to have been argued tomorrow in State Supreme Court.

Agree to Pact

But meeting on neutral ground yesterday, both parties agreed to the following pact:

The thruway will build a concrete sluiceway for the Ramapo—100 feet wide and a mile long. This would keep the river away from all but one of the reserve wells. The thruway promised to dig another well.

Engineers and chemists will make further studies and reports before a final decision is reached. Meanwhile, no workmen would invade Suffern territory.

As a result, village officials said they would ask for a two-week postponement for application of the injunction proceedings.

Thruway representatives said the original decision to divert the Ramapo at Suffern meant a saving of $2,100,000 by avoiding construction of seven bridges. While the mile-long sluiceway will be expensive, they said, it will not be as costly as overpass construction—which would be necessary if Suffern won a legal battle.

Third Try Made

Albany, Nov. 12 (AP)—Negotiators for the AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters and the Dairy Transport Association today make their third try for agreement in contract talks affecting more than 1,000 truckers. After an unsuccessful meeting yesterday, Thomas L. Hickey, teamsters vice president, said a strike by the union drivers was not imminent, although the parties were far apart on wages and hours.

It is believed that the cotton pest, boll weevil, originated in Mexico or Central America.

NACA Speaker

DR. CHARLES REITELL

The Mid-Hudson Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants will hold its regular November meeting Monday, Nov. 16, at the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Charles Reitell, participating associate of Sevenson, Jordan and Harrison, management engineers of New York. He will talk on Basic Costs in Action.

Dr. Reitell is a graduate of Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania, B.S., University of Wisconsin, MA and the University of Pennsylvania, Ph.D.

A social hour will open Monday's program at 6 p. m. with dinner at 6:45 p. m. and the meeting at 7:45 p. m.

Hospital Plan Is Reopening Group

The Blue Cross and Blue Shield plans are reopening the community group which was established in June of this year. At that time, 1500 people took advantage of the broader benefits and lower group rates. This nonprofit community service organization will once again reopen the group to all unemployed, self-employed, and persons employed where there are less than four persons. They also emphasize that persons paying directly to the New York office may transfer their enrollment to this group. This will be the only enrollment available on this group basis until November 1954.

Two of the many advantages for the citizens of the area are Blue Cross Blue Shield plans offer the broadest protection against hospital and doctors care and only Blue Cross puts no cash credit on so many hospital services.

Payments will be made monthly through the Rondout National Bank, Kingston Trust Company, New Paltz Savings Bank, Saugerties National Bank, or the Woodstock Branch of the Bank of Orange County. The banks will handle the payments only but enrollment information will be available through the temporary enrollment headquarters which will be announced shortly. Information can also be obtained by contacting or writing to the Blue Cross Blue Shield office at 35 Market street, Poughkeepsie.

Bridge Club Dessert

Wondering what to serve for dessert, when the bridge club comes? Here's a suggestion: Arrange broiled pineapple rings on spongecake squares and top with hot caramel sauce and a fluff of whipped cream. Plenty of calories in this one, but it tastes awfully good!

Farmers Raised Large Turkey Crop

Albany, Nov. 12 (AP)—New York farmers are raising more than a million turkeys this year, but the bumper crop will fall far short of satisfying New Yorkers' Thanksgiving appetites.

The state commerce department noted yesterday that only about one out of six turkeys carved in the state on Thanksgiving Day would be New York-bred.

The department said the record crop was due to dry weather, in which turkeys thrive, and improved methods of feeding.

Baking School Set For 4-H Members

An all-day training school for 4-H Club boys and girls on how to bake a better cake will be held at the YWCA in Kingston on Friday, Nov. 13, beginning at 10 a. m., it was announced today by Edmund R. Bower, Ulster county 4-H Club agent.

The school will be conducted by Miss Mildred Dunn, specialist in food and nutrition. Methods of mixing, correct baking practices and proper care of the product after it comes from the oven are some of the procedures that will be stressed at the meeting.

The project is designed for club members who have had considerable experience in cooking. Those who enroll will make cakes with shortening by several methods, angel food cakes, sponge cakes and icings.

Thailand Subject Of Lecture Here At Bethany Hall

Dr. Lyle A. Sutton, well known surgeon specialist of Albany, who has recently returned from Thailand, where he accomplished a medical teaching assignment under the direction of the Mutual Security Administration, will give an illustrated lecture on this strange land Saturday evening, November 14 at 8 o'clock in Bethany Hall of the First Dutch Church.

Dr. Sutton is giving his services to the missionary agencies of the First Dutch Church, although his commission to Thailand was unrelated to missions. The public is invited to attend and there will be no admission charge. An offering for worthy mission enterprises will be received.

In addition to pictures, objects and materials of native handicraft will be on display. The pictures in appealing colors were taken by him.

A fluent and able speaker, Dr. Sutton is well known in medical circles throughout the state and is a prominent member of the Albany Rotary Club.

Since the problems of Asia and her peoples have become of the utmost concern to the United States, a large attendance is anticipated. Thousands of Americans have given their lives in the struggle for freedom in this area and over 15 billions of dollars have been expended there. Our citizens are bound by reason of sentiment and security to know more about the nations in Asia.

Making Cupcakes?

Then surprise your family with one of these taste treats. Tuck a couple of drained stewed apricot halves in the batter in each cup before baking. Or sprinkle the cupcake batter with small pieces of semi-sweet chocolate before baking. Use either of these suggestions with white or chocolate cake batter.

Glass milk bottles were first developed about 70 years ago.

WHICH IS LESS FATTENING?

3 Teaspoons of Domino Sugar Contain Fewer Calories than 4 Medium Prunes!

And 3 teaspoons of Domino Sugar contain fewer calories than 1 cup of boiled winter squash!

"Counting calories" nowadays? You should know that generous amounts of Domino Granulated Sugar, used in your favorite foods and beverages, contain fewer calories than usual servings of many foods regularly included in reducing diets.

Nutritionists say that no single food is fattening unless you take in more calories than your body uses up. Prunes and squash are excellent foods . . . but, sugar, too, is nutritionally important in the well-balanced diet you need for good health.

So don't deny yourself the pleasureful extra flavor that Domino Sugar adds to your daily meals. And always insist on Domino Pure Cane Sugar because only one sugar is Domino pure!

Wagner Plans Hospital Program

Nassau, Bahamas, Nov. 12 (AP)—Mayor-elect Robert F. Wagner of New York says he plans "to do my utmost to improve and expand our hospital facilities."

In a statement issued here yesterday where he is vacationing with his wife, Wagner said his aides in New York are communicating with authorities in the hospital management field, discussing possible choices for a commissioner of hospitals.

He said he is soliciting suggestions from hospitals, organizations and recognized experts in the field of hospital management and operation.

"In the case of the Department of Hospitals," he said, "it is particularly important that we obtain a commissioner of outstanding ability—a man who can provide our people with maximum service with the present inadequate facilities."

Wagner and his wife arrived here Sunday and plan to stay two weeks.

Missing Children

National Guardsmen joined police and volunteers Nov. 9, in a search for Carol Anne, right, 7, and Thomas Gilmore, left, 8, missing from their home in Framingham, Mass., since the morning of Nov. 8.

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Roast pork leads the parade of best buys in food stores and supermarkets around the country this week. And there's plenty of red cabbage, sauerkraut and apple sauce to go with it.

Some of the big trend-setting food chains are featuring pork loins at prices ranging from 4 to 10 cents below last week's levels. Weekend "specials" in pork loins are being advertised from Los Angeles to New York.

Beef is also lower in many parts of the country, notably top sirloin, rib roast and pot roast. The trend in lamb continues higher—both for roast leg of lamb and loin and shoulder chops. Prices of frying chickens are mostly unchanged; in many areas the plump fryers and broilers are a good bargain.

Egg Prices Are Down

Egg prices are down again this week. Reductions of one or two cents a dozen are fairly common in wide areas of the nation, but a gradual rise can be expected as holiday demand picks up. The Poultry and Egg National Board says egg prices on a nationwide average are 12 cents a dozen lower than they were a year ago, chiefly because egg production is sharply higher. Hens are laying more than they used to, thanks to scientific care breeding, and flocks are larger. Consumption has climbed to an annual rate of more than 400 eggs per capita as compared to 298 just before World War 2.

Best Vegetable Buys

Best buys on the vegetable counter this week include many of the traditional "fixing's" for a roast pork dinner. There's cabbage of all varieties—red, savoy, "Danish" and domestic. Also listed in the "best buy" category are round white potatoes. Among the good buys reported by market specialists are greens (spinach, kale, turnip tops and collards), radishes, peppers and winter squash, the latter including the butternut, hubbard and acorn types.

Apples—To be eaten "as is" or for use in pies or apple sauce—continue to head the list of standard buys in the fresh fruit department. Prices are about the same as last week for practically all varieties except the popular MacIntosh which is a little lower in some areas.

Citrus Fruits Plentiful

Most citrus fruits are plentiful. Tangerines — sky-high in price when the season's first shipments reached market last week—are down sharply. They are expected to get still cheaper and more plentiful as harvesting of the current crop progresses.

Several off-season fruits are available in big city produce markets this week—if you don't mind paying off-season prices. Included are strawberries, razzberries, pomegranates and limes.

The agriculture department has singled out the winter pear as its food headliner this week. If the pears are not quite ripe when you buy them, let them ripen at home at room temperature. Baked pears can be served hot out of the oven with cinnamon, or cold with cottage cheese or whipped cream. Most popular variety is the Anjou pear: It's green-skinned and fine textured and is usually in plentiful supply from November through March.

Serving Citrus Salads

Serve citrus salads often with meat, poultry or fish courses during the winter. An orange and onion ring salad is delicious with roast duck; grapefruit and red apple make a refreshing accompaniment to roast pork.

Navy Man, Boy Reach West Coast

San Francisco, Nov. 12 (AP)—A rugged 35-year-old navy bachelor and the chubby little Korean he took off the streets of Inchon more than a year ago have finally made it to the United States.

After weeks of battling red tape, the pair—both of them smiling shyly—arrived yesterday aboard a big flying boat from Honolulu.

Four-year-old Lee Kyung Soo was wearing a uniform just like that of chief boatswain's mate Vincent T. Paladino of New Rochelle, N. Y., a veteran of 13 years in the navy.

Paladino, who hopes to adopt the orphan said the first time he saw Lee "I decided to take him out of the cold and clean him up.

"Lee feared me. It was two months before he would believe I was a friend and another month before he smiled."

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

CLOROX makes linens more than white... it makes them sanitary, too!

Why settle for partly-white linens when Clorox makes them really white, snowy-white...removing even dinginess and stains. And Clorox provides added health protection. No other home laundering product equals Clorox in germ-killing efficiency!

Plus all its other laundering benefits, Clorox deodorizes...leaves cottons and linens clean smelling whether dried indoors or out. And Clorox, a liquid, contains no gritty particles to damage wash and washer. It's free from caustic, extra gentle, made by an exclusive, patented formula.

You'll have a brighter, fresher, more sanitary kitchen with CLOROX!

You don't know how bright, fresh and sanitary your drainboard, sink and kitchen floor can be until they're Clorox-clean. For Clorox removes stains, deodorizes, disinfects. No wonder it's America's favorite! See label directions for the many uses of Clorox.

Eden Has New Aide

London, Nov. 12 (AP) — Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden has a new aide in his office today. Prime Minister Churchill announced he has named the Marquess of Reading as minister of state for foreign affairs. Selwyn Lloyd, Britain's chief delegate to the United Nations, holds the same title. A government spokesman said the new appointment would not affect Lloyd's post.

WALLKILL NEWS

Wallkill, Nov. 11 — Rose-Sheeley Post 1034 of the American Legion will hold a games party Nov. 18 at the Legion Rooms at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be served. This is the annual stag affair.

Mrs. Thomas Bellarosa entertained recently at a surprise shower in honor of Miss Estelle DaGuerre whose engagement was recently announced to Clifford H. Caswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Caswell of Wallkill. The room was decorated with white bells and streamers and a buffet luncheon was served. Those attending were Mrs. John DaGuerre and Miss Sheilah Wile of Westbury, L. I.; Mrs. Aidah Billings of Pine Bush; Mrs. Stanley Van Wagenen and Miss Carole Van Wagenen of Kingston; Mrs. C. E. Caswell, Mrs. Emmet Conklin, Mrs. Eli H. Van Wagenen, Mrs. George Sohn, Mrs. Clifford Quick, Mrs. J. A. Lipsett, Mrs. George Sherwood, Mrs. George Geyer, Mrs. Walter Smith, Miss Barbara Smith, Mrs. George Crist, and Mrs. George Parliman, all of Wallkill.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morris entertained Sunday night in honor of their son's birthday. Jeffrey, who was six years old, received many gifts. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Playne and George Gledhill of Walden; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Palen and children of New Hurley; Mrs. Viola Jansen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Morehouse and Miss Helen M. Van Wyck.

The Wallkill Women's Club will hold its November meeting at 7:30 p. m. Friday, Nov. 13, at the community room of the Wallkill National Bank. The speaker will be Richard Willis, well-known television star and grooming analyst who will speak on the topic: Here's Looking at You. Mrs. John E. Sloan, club president, will preside at the business meeting.

A surprise anniversary party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Neuwirth of Wallkill Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neuwirth of Newburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Neuwirth were married 27 years. Those attending were Pvt. Richard Neuwirth of Fort Devens, Mr. and Mrs. John Neuwirth and children, Janet and Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mizerak and son Ronnie of Wallkill; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fries and son LeRov of Lake Osiris; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Neuwirth of Marlborough; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Henry and son Jackie of Newburgh; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neuwirth and daughter Linda of Newburgh.

Mrs. Viola Jansen was a dinner guest Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Decker.

Miss Pauline DuBois of Glens Falls spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. DuBois.

Frank E. Schoonmaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Schoonmaker of Wallkill, recently was promoted to corporal while serving in Korea with the 2nd Infantry Division. The 2nd Division took part in two of the Korean conflict's most historic battles. It captured Heartbreak Ridge after weeks of bitter fighting in October 1951 and took old Baldy Hill in July 1952. Cpl. Schoonmaker, a rifleman with Company F of the 9th Infantry Regiment, entered the army in October 1952 and joined the 2nd Division last April. He holds the Combat Infantryman Badge.

Pvt. Joseph L. Camarda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Camarda of Wallkill, recently graduated from the five-week personnel management course at the Imo Jima Specialist School in Japan. The course, one of the many open to U. S. and Allied military personnel, teaches the administration of personnel records and how to aid soldiers in selecting army careers. Pvt. Camarda, a graduate of Syracuse University, entered the army in December 1952 and completed basic training at Fort Dix, N. J.

Pvt. Richard Neuwirth of Fort Devens spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Neuwirth.

Mrs. George Sohn spent Sunday with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet S. Conklin.

The members of Rose-Sheeley Post 1034 Ladies' Auxiliary, Wallkill, met Monday night. Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, historian, reported that the historian's book is now completed. The Auxiliary was formed in 1931 and records will be read at each meeting for the information of the members. Mrs. Kathryn Sowa, Pan-American Study chairman, presented some facts on Mexico, the country for study this year. Mrs. Dorothy Wickes, rehabilitation chairman, is planning a trip to Castle Point Veterans Hospital Nov. 18. In 1933, the Auxiliary "adopted" Ward E3, and although Christmas gifts must now be sent to Veterans Hospital in Albany, visits will still be made to the ward. Members and friends are invited to contribute homemade cookies. These may be left with the president, Mrs. Lawson, on Wednesday or at the Legion Rooms, before 1 p. m. Christmas gifts for Albany must be in before Dec. 1. A new member, Mrs. Harold Birdsall, was presented. Mrs. Birdsall will be child welfare chairman, taking the place of Mary Decker, who has moved to Long Island. Sweaters will again be sent to Korean children, and work has begun on an afghan for a hospitalized veteran. The proceeds of the recent cafeteria supper were $51.34. Due to conflicting dates, the card party that was to have been held Nov. 18, has been postponed indefinitely. The next meeting will be a Christmas party and will be held at Mrs. Lawson's home on the night of Dec. 14.

At a regular meeting of the Wallkill Reformed Church Sunday school held at the church hall Friday night, the nomination committee presented the slate of officers for 1954, who were duly elected: Superintendent Frederick C. Terwilliger; Edmund Cooper, assistant; Margaret Terwilliger, secretary; Mary L. DuBois, treasurer; Marvin Mower, assistant; Viola Jansen, pianist; Betty Fox, assistant. Assistant superintendent in charge of the primary department is Mrs. Harriet McHugh. Miss Jane Eckert is the assistant. Mrs. John Kessler is pianist. In the nursery department, Mrs. T. Seurat is the assistant superintendent while Mrs. Robert Auchmoody is her assistant. It was decided the Sunday school rooms would be decorated by all teachers and officers Dec. 18, and Dec. 23 the Sunday school would hold its annual Christmas entertainment and party for the children. Dec. 20 was designated as White Christmas Sunday and Howard C. Terwilliger was named chairman. Committee for the entertainment was named including the Rev. Walter N. Van Popering, Fred C. Terwilliger, Howard C. Terwilliger, Edmund Cooper, and Mrs. Harriet McHugh. Various business was discussed on buying of a projector, curtains for the platform, special meeting night and the buying of Christmas scenes for the Sunday school rooms. Mr. Terwilliger named for the executive committee for the coming year, all of the officers in addition to the Rev. Walter N. Van Popering.

Wallkill Reformed Church Notes: Thursday, 7 p. m., mid week prayer service with the Rev. Walter N. Van Popering conducting the worship service. Thursday, 7:45 p. m., choir rehearsal. This week will be the first week of rehearsal on The Christmas Cantata, The Star of Bethlehem by F. Flaxington Harker. Sunday, Nov. 15, 10 a. m. Sunday school convenes with Superintendent Frederick C. Terwilliger presiding. At 11 a. m. worship service will be held at the church. The Rev. Walter N. Van Popering will deliver the sermon, and the choir under the direction of Mrs. Hubert Hendrie will furnish the music. At 8 p. m. in the church hall Sunday, Mrs. Raymond DuBois will show slides of the Akobo Mission Work being done in Africa. The slides have been taken by our missionaries, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Arnold. A special collection will be taken. Wednesday, Nov. 25, at 8 p. m., the annual Thanksgiving Day Service will be held. The choir will present the anthem, Praise Ye Jerusalem under the direction of Mrs. Hubert Hendrie.

The November Parents Club meeting was held in the Wallkill Central School Library Thursday night. At the business meeting, It was decided that members would bring a wrapped Christmas gift again this year for children. Each gift is to be marked as to sex, age of child, and whether it is a toy or clothing. Miss Helen Lyons who was in charge of the program and she spoke on TV Influence on Reading; and Comic Books Influence on Children. A film shown was the interior of the Brooklyn Public Library and it thoroughly explained the facilities for families and business offered by that City Library. The next meeting will be held in the library Dec. 3.

Miss Pauline DuBois of Glens Falls spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert DuBois.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Wyck of Wilmington, Vt., were guests Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of their sister, Mrs. Harry W. Morehouse and Miss Helen M. Van Wyck.

Two Are Arrested On Conspiracy Counts

Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 12 (AP) —A former education minister of this British colony and a newspaper reporter have been arrested on charges of conspiracy in connection with "state secrets."

The action was taken yesterday against ex-minister Lester Simmonds, fired last month by Gov. Sir Hugh Foot on the recommendation of Prime Minister Alexander Bustamante, and Vincent Truman, a reporter for the Kingston Daily Gleaner.

National Party Leader Norman Manley charged recently that secret documents of the colony's executive council have been sold to Kingston merchants with one tipoff alone costing the government more than $250,000 in revenue.

New Dromedary Mixes

Made to Order For the Family

Now you don't have to "wait till they're coming" to bake a cake! The delicious new One-Pan Mixes by the famous Dromedary people are literally "made to order," for the family. They are the answer to hundreds of letters from women who want cakes their families can consume fresh in two or three meals. "Big two-layer cakes are too much for us, except for parties," they write, "so we're constantly faced with stale leftovers." And what good housekeeper wants to throw food or money away!

The new Dromedary Mixes, and there are three of them, an excellent home-style Yellow Cake, a luxurious White Cake, and a rich chocolate Devil's Food, are priced at only twenty-odd cents each! They are being introduced with a money-saving combination package of all three mixes for only 69c. All these three mixes are made by a special homogenized process that gives the cakes what Dromedary calls "Magic Rise." In other words high-rising cakes, lusciously light and tender. You bake them in standard size pans either 8" x 8" x 2" square pans to cut into nine fine servings (plenty?) . . . or you can make them in 9" x 1½" round pans and get a single layer that's 40 per cent higher than from the average cake mix! If your family prefers a two-layer cake, simply cut your round layer in half, frost it, and place one half over the other. In either case you have the ease of handling and cleaning only one pan . . . you have only one surface to frost . . . and you have money in the piggy bank!

A very special salute to Dromedary for the ready-cut glassine pan liners they insert in each of these new cake mix packages.

Shokan

Shokan, Nov. 11—Callers here Friday included H. Forde of Great Neck, L. I., who came with relatives to inspect the family place on the High Point road near Brodhead. He reports that Mrs. Forde has been ill and that Henrietta Crispell, younger sister of Mary Crispell of VanBuren street, Kingston, is still employed at the Forde home.

State troopers are keeping an eye out for school bus law violators and those motorists who go beyond the 50 MPH limit. A young fellow from the county seat recently parted with ten bucks and had his license marked for speeding through the twin villages.

James H. Stoutenburgh, who has drilled many a water well in the north reservoir country, was signally honored the latter part of October when he addressed the board of directors of the national water well drillers association at their convention in Philadelphia. He spoke on Civil Defense, a favorite subject of his, and a resolution subsequently was passed, and forwarded to all the state associations, calling for full support of the defense program. A highlight of the big convention, attended by some 700 delegates, was the annual banquet at which Alben Barkley, former vice president, was guest speaker.

Mrs. H. B. Young of the Albany avenue section of Kingston was a caller in the hub of the reservoir country Thursday. She is a former resident of Bushnellsville near the Greene county line.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Holder and Mr. and Mrs. Heinz Schunemann, all of the Bronx, are now occupying the Morton Hendrickson place on the mountain road which they bought earlier in the season. They plan to improve the property and make it their year round home. Mrs. Schunemann is a niece of Mrs. Holder.

Miss Charlotte Cahill, Edward McSpirit United in Marriage

Miss Charlotte Cahill, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Cahill of 129 Pine Grove avenue and the late Alexander P. Cahill, became the bride of Edward McSpirit, son of Mrs. Jane McSpirit of 141 Greenkill avenue, in a ceremony Sunday, Nov. 1 at 2 p. m. at St. Mary's Church. The Rev. Edward I. Farrelly of St. Mary's Church performed the ceremony.

Theodore Reccobono was organist. The soloist, Miss Patricia Keefe, sang Ave Maria. The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums.

The bride wore a gown of light blue nylon net with a matching veil trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Mrs. Joan Petramale of Glasco was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of shell pink nylon net with a bouffant skirt. Her headpiece was a small band of matching horsehair roses. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

B. M. 1/c James McSpirit, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were C. P. O. Paul F. Cahill, brother of the bride, and P.F.C. John McSpirit, brother of the bridegroom, with the U.S. Marine Corps.

A reception was held for the immediate family at Amell's Restaurant.

For the wedding trip to New York, the bride wore a sapphire blue velvet suit and a matching hat with an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School, and is employed by the New York Telephone Company.

The bridegroom attended Kingston High School and is employed by James McWilliams Blue Line Towing Company.

The couple will make their home with the bride's parents at 129 Pine Grove avenue.

Saturday Is Deadline For Management Ladies' Night Dinner

Purchase of tickets for ladies' night must be reported to Harvey Kolts, Jr., telephone 3374, or to plant contact men no later than Saturday, Nov. 14, in order to secure reservations, William W. Ewing, president of the Kingston Industrial Management Club, announced today.

Scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 19, at 7 p. m. at The Barn, the ladies' night program will feature the serving of a roast beef dinner, entertainment by the King's Chorus and Cameron Rylance, the presentation of awards, group singing, and dancing.

Local vocal favorites, the King's Chorus, under the direction of Donald Romme, minister of music of the Old Dutch Church, will serenade with both spiritual and semi-popular selections.

Cameron Rylance, accomplished young Kingston pianist, will entertain with several numbers.

The Barn orchestra will provide music for dancing from 9-1.

Members are welcome to bring any number of guests they wish.

Ladies' night committee members are M. A. Overfield, David C. Cates, and Harvey Kolts, Jr.

Greek Student, Hostess for Year in Kingston

(Freeman Photo)

MISS CHLOE TRANTOU AND MISS MARLENE LARIOS

Prisma Exchange Student of Larissa, Greece Compares Teen-Ager's Life in Two Countries

The blue hills of Greece seemed very close indeed as pretty Chloe Trantou, 18, a recent arrival from those shores, began to tell of her homeland and her trip to the United States.

Seated with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Larios and their dark-eyed attractive daughter, Marlene, in the living room of the Larios home at 90 Emerson street, Chloe explained that she is studying at Kingston High School as an exchange student sponsored by Prisma Society. She will stay with the Larios family for the school year.

Sailed With Other Exchange Students

Mrs. Larios told of their meeting petite, winsome Chloe on her arrival in Kingston on September 21, after her trip on the Nea Hellas from Greece. Thirteen students besides Chloe were aboard being sent to various places in the United States as exchange students. Mrs. Larios explained, "When she got off the bus here, she looked so reserved and quiet, hardly saying anything but yes and no. Finally, when we were almost at the house, Leo asked her a question in Greek. She broke into smiles and answered right away in full sentences. That was the first time she knew that she would be staying with a Greek family."

A native of Larissa, Greece, a city with a population of 45,000, Chloe graduated from a girls' high school there, first in her class. Her comment on the co-ed system of education was, "I like it better in the high school here."

She finds many things to compare with home since her arrival in September. "In my high school the girls all wore black uniforms. And we didn't fuss as much as the girls do here. We didn't have the time."

Academic Schedule Heavy in Greek School

The rigid schedule of mathematics, science, language study with private tutors, and no elective subjects, allowed little time for fuss or extra curricular activities. "Only work, from Monday through Saturday, from 2 o'clock until 6. You see, we had to go to school in shifts, using the grammar school, as the high school was destroyed during the war, and hasn't been rebuilt yet."

Chloe was helped in telling about her experiences by each member of the Larios family when she lapsed into the more familiar Greek tongue. Marlene studied Greek here with a private tutor.

"The high school gave me a scholarship to learn English, and I studied it for two years only," added Chloe who speaks French as well.

An event which was a real city-wide festival in Larissa was the Field Day following examinations at Chloe's school. It was a display of the famous gymnastic work which the students learned during their school year.

Social Activities Here Are Fun

High school here is not all the study of subject matter alone, Chloe has learned. She and Marlene are active in the YWCA Tri-Hi group for teen-age girls. They attended the Harvest Moon Dance given by this group, a first in social events for Chloe. "They came home pretty tired," offered Mrs. Larios, but Chloe added "It was such fun."

"In Greece we don't have dances like this. Boys and girls meet at parties for name days which the families help to plan."

She's developed a fondness for chicken chow mein, spaghetti and meat balls, and most especially for hot dogs with liberal helpings of relish and mustard. She has also picked up teen-age expressions which sprinkle her schoolroom English vocabulary with "keen," "crazy," and the like.

She praises the way everyone mixes with everyone else in high school, even though differences in background aren't hidden by uniforms as they are in the Greek school.

In Larissa, Chloe lives with her mother and three sisters, who work in Athens. Mrs. Larios consulted the dictionary to translate that one sister is a typist, and that they aren't as well paid as American typists are. Chloe has two other sisters and one brother.

"I want very much to continue my education, but there is always the problem of money. I would like to study journalism or literature."

And staying in America? "One year is not enough." All the classmates who hear the "Hi, nice day," her favorite greeting, agree, since Chloe Trantou is a welcome addition to the Kingston High School enrollment.

High School Student Will Be Soloist With Kings Chorus

CAMERON RYLANCE

As soloist with the Kings Chorus at its concert for the Old Dutch Church, Wednesday, Nov. 18, at 8:30 p. m. in Bethany Hall, will be Cameron Rylance, Kingston High School Senior.

Mr. Rylance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rylance, 44 West Chestnut street. He is a student of Miss Lina Schmidtkonz, and is in his fourth year as accompanist for the Kingston High School Choir, with which group he traveled to Buffalo last spring. He has also played at two state choral festivals held in New Paltz under the directorship of John Raymond of Lafayette College. His appearance at the second of these festivals was at the special request of the festival director.

In May, 1952, he performed in a solo and two-piano recital in Bethany Hall with Gita Weinrauch. He has officiated as organist on numerous occasions at the First Baptist, Fair Street Reformed, and Hurley Reformed Churches, and at Kingston High School.

His solo group at the Kings Chorus concert will include Etude, Opus 10, No. 3 by Chopin and the Prelude in G Minor by Rachmaninoff. As a second group he will perform several two-piano works with his mother, the Waltz of the Flowers by Tschaikowsky and the Flight of the Bumble Bee by Rimsky-Korsakov.

The Kings Chorus is directed by Donald Romme, and Mrs. William Rylance is the regular accompanist. Tickets are now available from any member of the chorus, from the director, 2921-M, or the church office, 272 Wall street, 6759.

MRS. ALBERT G. BENINCASA

Miss Mary B. Ferraro Becomes Bride Of Albert Benincasa

Miss Mary Bernice Ferraro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ferraro of Bayard street, Port Ewen, and Albert Gregory Benincasa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Santo Benincasa of 38 St. James street, were united in marriage in a ceremony Sunday, Nov. 8 at 2:30 p. m. at the Church of the Presentation in Port Ewen.

The Rev. Joseph Kerins, CSsR, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Veronica Coniglio was organist, and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Peter Mancuso, in the selections, Ave Maria and Mother Beloved.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, pompons, palms and baskets of chrysanthemums and pompons. The pews were marked with white pompons and white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of rose point lace, fashioned with a fitted bodice trimmed with iridescent sequins, long tapered sleeves and an illusion yoke. Her scalloped bouffant skirt over bridal satin terminated in a sweep train. Her French illusion three-quarter length veil was attached to a scalloped bridal cap of matching lace, sequins and seed pearl trimmed. The bride carried a prayer book with white orchids and a cascade of fleur d'amour with showers of swansonia.

Miss Jacqueline O'Banks of Port Ewen was the honor attendant. She wore a gown of turquoise velveteen styled with a fitted bodice, halter neckline and full floor-length skirt. A Spencer jacket and a matching hat trimmed with velveteen leaves completed her ensemble. She carried a cascade of Bettertime roses and matching ribbon.

Miss Betty Tucker of Kingston and Miss Marilyn Dispensa, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to the one worn by the honor attendant. They carried cascades of bettertime roses with matching ribbon.

Edward Carcona of Kingston was best man. Paul Giannuzzi, nephew of the bridegroom of Kingston, and Donald Ferraro, cousin of the bride of Port Ewen, were ushers.

A reception for 200 guests was held at Broglio's, West Park. Johnny Knapp and his orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

For the wedding trip to Florida, the bride wore a honey beige and green ensemble with brown accessories, and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Benincasa is a graduate of Kingston High School, class of 1948, and of the Moran-Spencerian Business School. She is employed as receptionist in the office of the Forst Packing Co., Kingston.

Mr. Benincasa is employed by the Lake Tankers Corporation in New York.

The couple plan to make their future home in Port Ewen.

Herbert Greenwalds Report on Two-Week Air Trip to Europe

"The prices are low, the food is wonderful, and there's no talk of war," Herbert Greenwald, of Greenwald's Travel Service said, upon his recent return from Europe with Mrs. Greenwald.

A survey of Switzerland, the second in the past several years, and a brief sojourn in Rome were completed in shortly over two weeks by the Greenwalds in their trans-Atlantic flight via Trans-World Airlines.

One of the deepest impressions made on the local travel agents was meeting a number of people whom they had known in past years, including college classmates and service friends.

Rome is still the Eternal City, enhanced by the floodlights playing on the Colosseum and the dome of St. Peter's Bascilica at night. Of interest to American travelers are the low prices of food and clothing in the city.

Attributing Rome's prosperity to the Marshall Plan and the vast number of pilgrims during Holy Year of 1950, Mr. Greenwald feels that 1954 will prove another year of travel to Rome. This will be Marian Year, proclaimed by His Holiness Pope Pius XII in honor of the 100th anniversary of the proclamation of the Immaculate Conception.

The Greenwalds attended the World Travel Congress which convened in Rome during the last week of October. They heard Ambassador Clare Luce and Premier Pella of Italy address the assemblage.

The Greenwalds are enthusiastic about Switzerland, which they visited prior to their arrival in Italy. Striking impressions of cleanliness, beautiful stores, delicious food, and picturesque post-card scenes come to life are their report on the Swiss jaunt.

They both agreed that there is much to be seen in just two weeks on the continent with a well-planned itinerary in mind.

Cut Rate Pharmacy Introduces Modern Self-Service Plan

One of the most modern drug stores in the Hudson Valley, if not in the entire East, has resulted from recent renovations at the United Cut Rate Pharmacy, 324 Wall street, according to George Svirsky, proprietor.

The pharmacy has introduced a new-type of self-service which enables the customer to make his own selection from the shelf. The merchandise, well-displayed, is within easy reach of the customer who can pick it up and examine it if he chooses. The prices are marked on each piece of merchandise and on a "price stripping," which runs along the shelf edge.

The store is divided into sections and labeled to assist the customer. Some of the divisions include, for example, home remedies, vitamins, tooth paste, shaving needs, hand care, deodorants, shampoos, etc.

The self-service shelves are located on one side of the store and on the other side what Svirsky calls the Beauty Bar where cosmetics and toiletries are prominently displayed. Stools are provided at the Beauty Bar for customers while they are making their selections. The Bar is attended by a trained cosmetician.

The prescription department remains unchanged, "the best value for the least price."

The front of the store has been attractively finished with large, plate glass windows rising from a low platform of small colored tiles. Beds of pachysandra have been set in the tile.

The store was founded in 1936 by Mortimer Englander and was taken over in 1947 by Svirsky.

Foods of Many Lands Served at YWCA Dinner Tuesday

World Traveler To Tell Adventures At Dinner Club

ROBERT CHRISTOPHER

For Bob Christopher the patron saint of travelers holds a special meaning. St. Christopher has served as an unfailing inspiration to his young namesake. For although Bob is still in his twenties, he has traveled more than most men twice his age. He comes to Kingston on Tuesday, Nov. 17 to tell the meeting of the Kingston National Dinner Club at the Governor Clinton Hotel, the story of his global adventures in his talk, Around the World on $80.

Colliers Magazine agreed to grubstake the young photographer to $80, with a promise to print his story upon his return from his global tour. The way Bob tells it, it cost him 15 cents to cross the Atlantic Ocean, the price of subway and bus fare to Idlewild Airport in New York.

Christopher Had Many Close Calls

In the course of his adventures, Bob has hitched a ride with the Prince of Iraq, has been arrested as a spy in Jordan, and had a long-distance brush with Russian guards at the Soviet-Iranian border.

He still shakes his head in wonderment when he recalls the time he unwittingly accepted a ride from dope-smugglers across the Afghanistan border, or the time he risked his life and limb, this time knowing the possible consequences, by taking pictures of the denizens of an opium den in Hong Kong.

An expert photographer, he learned his craft during wartime navy duty as a combat photographer. He published a book of protographs of the war entitled, Remember, which ran to two editions.

Globe-Circling Had Serious Purpose

Although Bob Christopher calls his global odyssey "a worldful adventure on a pocketful of change," there was a serious purpose to his trip as well. He brought back more than 1,000 samples of soil from every corner of the world that he visited for a well known manufacturer of antibiotic drugs.

There is still time to become a member of the Kingston National Dinner Club, announces Warren Smith, secretary, for the first meeting. Members who join now will enjoy a complete season of events. Further information about joining this organization may be obtained by contacting Mr. Smith, telephone 1819.

Stein's Celebrating Its Holiday Jubilee

Stein's, located at 299 Wall street, is celebrating the holiday jubilee of the organization this year with a special offer of free turkeys to customers who register at the local store. The manager emphasized that the registration for the turkeys in no way obligates the customers, nor does it require any special skills on the part of the person who enters the contest.

It was pointed out that Stein's usual business policy is emphasized even more in the present promotion—the policy of purchasing top-quality woolens in large quantities, manufacturing their own men's clothing, and selling direct to the public through their own stores.

The local Stein's store is now featuring holiday merchandise for men, in the latest styles, models, and colors.

OBJECTION TO "GRANDMA JONES"

A mother writes me: "I have a son who has a three-year-old daughter. They are teaching her to call my daughter-in-law's aunt, "Grandma." This aunt raised my daughter-in-law from the time she was a baby and she feels that she should give her the honor of being called grandma. I am know to the baby as "Grandma Jones" which I don't like. I feel being the only real grandmother that I should not have to be singled out by attaching my name to the title of grandma. If anyone should be referred to in this manner, I think it should be the aunt. What is your opinion?"

Ask them to call you "grandma-ma" or "Granny" or Grandmother." In other words, I agree with you that "Grandma Jones" is very lacking in affection.

Signing Thank-You Notes

Dear Mrs. Post: I am in the midst of writing thank-you notes for wedding presents and I am not sure just how these should be signed. That is, do I sign them with my name alone or should my husband's name be included in the signature? I have had conflicting opinions about this and am completely confused.

Answer: You mention his name in the letter (John and I love your gift) and sign your name only.

Ask Before Taking

Dear Mrs. Post: I would greatly appreciate your opinion in the following matter. My fiance thinks that it's perfectly correct for a person to help himself to a remaining portion of food on a serving dish without inquiring whether anyone else at table would care for any. He feels that if anyone else wanted it, they would take it and therefore it is not incorrect for him to help himself to it. I believe that this action is extremely impolite and that one should always ask if anyone else would care for it before emptying the dish.

Answer: You are definitely right.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN O'DONNELL

Miss Regina Peterson, John W. O'Donnell United in Marriage

Miss Regina Beverly Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peterson of New Salem, and John William O'Donnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Donnell of Port Ewen, were united in marriage Sunday, Nov. 8 at 2:30 p. m. at the Sacred Heart Church, Eddyville. The Rev. Fr. Murphy of this church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The organist was Mrs. John Smith. Miss Joan Lynch was soloist in the selections, Ave Maria, Mother Beloved and Panis Angelicus. The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of rose point lace, styled with a molded bodice, long fitted sleeves and a mandarin collar. Her bouffant skirt terminated in a sweep train. A princess crown of pearlized flowers secured her fingertip French illusion veil. She carried white pompons on a prayer book.

The honor attendant was Mrs. William Webster, Jr. of Port Ewen. She wore a gown of Cotillion blue nylon net, styled with a satin Empire bodice, mandarin collared capelet and bouffant floor length skirt worn over taffeta. She wore a princess crown of flowers, matching the bride's headpiece. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of pink pompons.

Francis O'Donnell, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. William Webster, Jr. and Robert Smith of Port Ewen were ushers.

A reception was held at the Alpine for 85 guests following the ceremony.

For the wedding journey to Lake George and upper New York state, the bride wore a winter white suit with black accessories and a corsage of white pompons.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School and the Benedictine Hospital School of Nursing, class of 1953. She is employed as a staff nurse at the Benedictine Hospital.

The bridegroom attended Kingston High School. He is now serving three years with the U. S. Navy and is stationed at Boston, Mass.

The couple plans to make their future home [illegible] Salem.

Miss Elizabeth Ahl, Cpl. Thomas Stenson Wed in France

Miss Elizabeth Marie Ahl, daughter of Mrs. Howard Quick of 32 Shufeldt street, and Corporal Thomas Patrick Stenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stenson of 206 West Chestnut street, were united in marriage Thursday, Aug. 20 at 11 a. m. in a ceremony held at Ecole Fenelon in La Rochelle, France. The Revk Martin Gildea performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by George Magyar, Sr., the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over satin, fashioned with a Queen Anne collar, illusion shoulder effect, and pointed sleeves. Her bouffant skirt had open pleats of net in the front. Her illusion veil was caught to a crown of lace, sequins and pearls. She carried red roses on a prayer book.

Miss Annick Roger of Ave. de la Gare, Chatelaillon, France, was maid of honor. Her gown was of ankle length net over taffeta fashioned with a taffeta bolero and three-quarter length sleeves. Her headpiece was a small satin braided hat. She carried a corsage of red roses.

George Magyar of Headquarters Group 7964 was best man.

Following a wedding dinner, the couple left on a wedding trip to several European countries.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School and St. Margaret's Hospital, class of 1942, Albany.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Kingston High School is with the 73rd Medical Detachment of the U. S. Army, in Europe.

The couple plan to make their future home in Kingston.

50,000 ROKs Greet Nixon at Seoul

Seoul, Nov. 12 (AP)—An estimated 50,00 South Koreans braved an icy winter wind today to greet U. S. Vice President Richard Nixon on his arrival in this battered capital.

Nixon told top American and Korean officials who met him at the airport that Korea is "the halfway point—and the high point" of his good will tour through the Far East.

He said Korea was where "aggressive imperialistic communism was stopped."

The vice president and his wife repeatedly stopped the motorcade which carried them into Seoul to shake hands with cold, shy school children who lined the street.

Koreans said Nixon's gesture helped to ease the hurt resulting from President Eisenhower's failure to make a public appearance during his hurried visit last December.

Nixon conferred with President Syngman Rhee and delivered a letter from President Eisenhower.

Prime Minister Paik Too Chin said it would be made public later.

A major part of Nixon's report to Eisenhower is expected to be an evaluation of what Rhee may do when a 90-day deadline on a political settlement for Korea expires early next year.

The Nixons will tour the Korean front Saturday and leave for Japan Sunday.

Expansion Is Favored

Albany, Nov. 12 (AP)—The New York State Federation of Women's Clubs favors the expansion of the high school driver-training program and lower insurance rates for safe drivers. The 400 delegates also approved resolutions yesterday calling on 286 member clubs to institute study programs on the United Nations and the problem of sex offenders.

Clean-Up Time Is Cut Hours When Paper Plates Are Used

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Nobody enjoys dishwashing, especially after a party. At our house, we use paper plates not only for parties, but also for family meals. Two hungry young boys can use a lot of plates, you know.

But we aren't the only ones. Marie Mahar, a top New York fashion model, uses them, too. She gives parties as easily as she poses for pictures. With as few as four guests or as many as 15, she finds serving on paper plates cuts clean-up time to a mere matter of minutes.

She puts plenty of paper plates on the table. Guests use whatever ones are most convenient. The ideal combination is a stack of nine-inch plates in an attractive printed pattern and a stack of six or seven-inch plates and paper bowls in solid colors.

"What combinations of plates I use," she explains, "depends on the time of the year and what I serve." You can change them from party to party and thus always be sure of a table setting that will be different from the last without having to resort to expensive floral arrangements for variety.

There are patterned plates for some parties, with floral designs or quaint Pennsylvania Dutch designs or those that simulate the pattern and color of knotty pine; for other parties plates in solid colors, or pastel shades or tones such as Mediterranean blue, Rembrandt red, glade gree or Coronation gold.

MARS MAN — Maj.-Gen. James McCormack, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., vice commander of the Air Research and Development Command, will look like an average human after he gets out of this pressure suit. But first he'll go for an altitude test, after S/Sgt. Vernon Teems, of Cartersville, Ga., laces the suit. The chamber, which is being tested at Carswell Air Force Base, Tex., simulates conditions at an altitude of 40,000 feet.

The Girl Scouts will resume their activities Nov. 18 from 7 until 8:30 p. m. at the Gardiner Church hall. All girls from 7 to 18 years of age who are interested in scouting are invited. Mrs. Oscar Jansen will be the leader with Mrs. Ransom Freer, Jr., and Mrs. Harold Marks as assistants.

McCarthy Holds Albany Hearing

Albany, Nov. 12 (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) conducts a closed-door hearing here today into what he terms "alleged Communist infiltration and alleged espionage" at the Schenectady plant of the General Electric Co.

McCarthy, chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, arrived here last night by plane and conferred with an aide on the hearing (10 AES), which will be held in the federal courthouse.

McCarthy had said earlier in Washington that today's session would deal entirely with security precautions at the huge GE installation.

The senator said that the hearing might run through Saturday morning and that there would be a public hearing here "later on."

McCarthy declined to identify any witnesses in advance but said he might make progress reports for newsmen at the windup of each session.

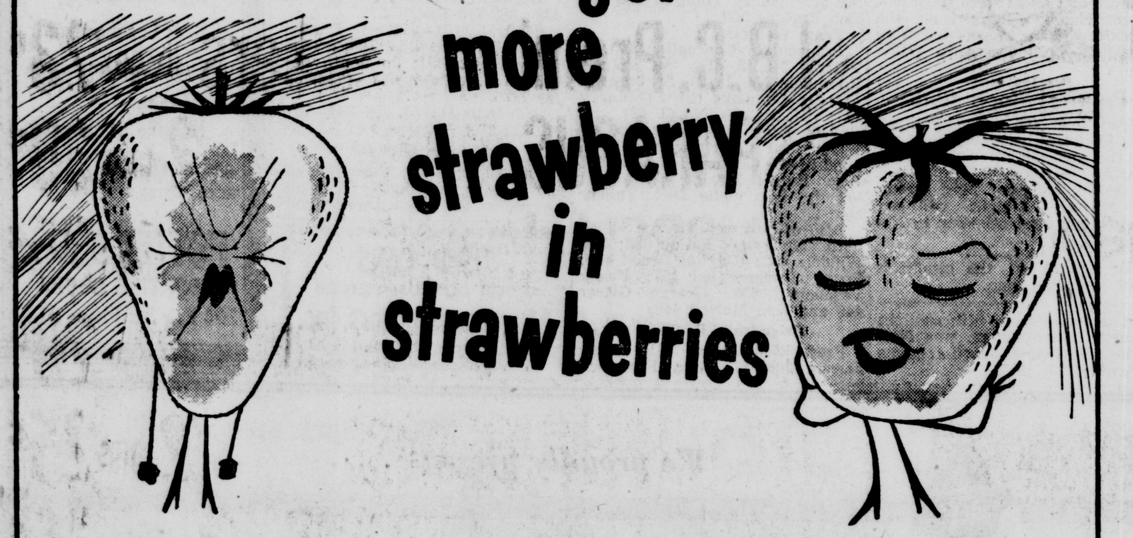
how to get more strawberry in strawberries



TOO-SOONERS

That wondrous and heavenly flavor beloved by millions is slow in arriving in a strawberry—doesn't really get there until that berry is mellow with sunshine and ruby-red with ripeness. Pick a strawberry a few days too soon and what have you? Something so tart it will make you wince and wish you'd bought bananas.

JUST-RIGHTERS

Strawberries destined for a Dulany package are watched by eagle eyes until they've become crowded with delectable flavor—their cheeks literally bulging out with red-ripe and juicy goodness. Then they're quickly plucked and plopped into the flavor-capturing quick-freeze. That's why Dulany strawberries taste the most strawberry of all strawberries.

KBA Sets Up $150 Guaranteed First Place Prize in Tournament

Minor Events Also to Have 2 Guarantees

Another lucrative prize fund is in the offing for participants in the 17th annual championships scheduled by the Kingston Bowling Association next February 8 through February 14 at the Ferraro Bowlodrome during the five-man and singles and doubles events.

That much was certain after the KBA's executives met Wednesday night at the YMCA and unanimously decided to offer another guaranteed first place prize of $150 to the team bowling the most number of pins, including handicap.

Last year the KBA offered a flat $125 first place prize and the tournament attracted 94 team events.

The executive board also decided last night to award a definite first place prize to both the doubles and singles events in total pins, including handicap. The board voted a guaranteed first place prize of $50 for the two-man event and $25 for the singles.

Mannie Colao, tournament manager, voiced his appreciation to the board for its action last night in making the tournament "an inviting one." "With these guaranteed first place prizes," Colao remarked, "the 1954 city tournament should attract a good entry list."

Dates Are Set

Immediately following last night's executive session, George Robinson and Secretary Irwin J. Thomas met and ironed out the dates for the 17th annual tournament. Team events will be rolled Monday through Friday with shifts scheduled for 7 p. m. and 9:15 p. m. Singles and doubles will be rolled Saturday and Sunday, February 13 and 14. The times for Saturday's shifts will be 6:45 and 8:45 p. m. while on Sunday the minor events will be rolled at 1 p. m., 3 p. m., 6 p. m. and 8 p. m.

Other plans for the tournament operation also were announced last night during the meeting.

Averages for the tournament will be final as of Jan. 1, 1954 and averages must be submitted to the KBA secretary, P.O. Box 142, by Jan. 8. All entries and full remittances must be mailed prior to midnight of Jan. 16, 1954.

New Ruling on Averages

During the recent special meeting of the board of directors of the KBA the following new ruling on determining averages was approved as a part of the revised constitution:

When a bowler has more than one average, the highest league average based on 12 games or more shall be used. When a bowler has not completed 12 or more games in a single league, then a composite average shall be computed from all the averages from all the leagues in which he has bowled, providing that at least 12 or more games have been bowled in such leagues.

When a bowler has not bowled in 12 or more games in league competition during the current season, then his highest final average for the previous season shall be used, providing that 12 or more games were bowled. When a bowler did not bowl in a league during the previous season and who does not have an average as defined above, he shall be entered in the city tournament only on a scratch basis. When a bowler is a member of the armed services or has recently been discharged from the armed services and who does not have an average as defined above he shall be permitted to bowl at his known average less five pins.

The 1954 tournament will again be operated in one division with 75 per cent handicap off scratch figures. All entry fees remain the same as during the 1953 competition.

Tournament applications are expected to be ready for release by the KBA secretary about Thanksgiving, President William R. Murray announced last night.

The tallest fighter in ring history was Henry Johnson from Ottawa, Canada, who fought between 1898 and 1900. He was seven feet two and weighed 265 pounds.

George Kell of the Boston Red Sox has hit over .300 for the last eight seasons.

Shanafelt Picked Lineman of Week

Philadelphia, Nov. 12 (AP)—Jack Shanafelt is the answer to those who say the current crop of college football players hasn't the stamina for the one platoon game.

When the NCAA Rules Committee surprised the football world by banning unlimited substitutions, the hue and cry of the double platoon backers included the lack of stamina theory, Shanafelt, the fine Penn tackle was named yesterday as Associated Press lineman of the week, convincingly shatters with myth.

Nobody will take issue with the fact that Penn's schedule is as tough as any in the country. Yet Shanafelt, a defensive player exclusively last year, has played 386 of a possible 420 minutes in Penn's first seven games.

Praised by Leahy

Frank Leahy, coach of the unbeaten Irish, singled out Shanafelt for high praise after Notre Dame beat Penn 28-20.

"That big lad (Shanafelt) was terrific. We double teamed him a couple of times and still he mussed up some of our plays before they really developed," said Leahy. It was typical comment of opposing coaches this year.

The 21-year-old native of Akron, Ohio, comes by his athletic ability naturally. His dad was captain of the track team and a football guard at Springfield Township High School in Akron. His mother was captain of the high school swimming team. Shanafelt stands six feet, one inch tall and weighs 215 pounds.

Rapps, Cedaraps Post Wins In 'Y' Basketball Circuit

Rapp's Express fought off a strong-finishing Accord team 73 to 64 to move into a first place tie with the 50 Club and Back Cedaraps.

Meanwhile, the Cedaraps had to fight all the way in the second game to hold off Waterous Lumber by the score of 68 to 62.

4-Way Tie Looms

With these three clubs tied for first place and the Angel Juniors, with the same amount of losses and one game left to play, there is a good chance that the league will finish in a four-way tie for the top position. If this happens, playoff games will be played Nov. 18 and 24.

In the first game Rapp's Express avenged its defeat last week to the Angel Juniors by defeating Accord. The Expressmen were ahead 63 to 37 going into the final quarter and had to fight off a 27-point last quarter stand by Accord to win. Phil McCluskey with 24, Herm Sickler with 19, and Bob Kozlowski with 17 led Rapps in scoring. Milford with 21 led the losing Accord team.

In the second game the Cigarmen were hard pressed all the way by a stubborn Watrous Lumber team. Backs succeeded in holding high scoring Herb Watrous to 13 points but his brother, Bill, took over scoring 22 points. Ron Brandt with 15 and Bruce Hinkley with 13 lead the winning Backs team.

Troy Kayoes Sandy In Flashy Workout

Washington, Nov. 12 (AP)—Al Weill, who manages heavyweight king Rock Marciano, said today he's convinced he has another champion on the way, hard-hitting middleweight Willie Troy.

The Washington youngster looked every bit a champion last night in knocking out highly regarded Randy Sandy of New York at 50 seconds of the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round bout that was televised nationwide.

Weill said Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, has pledged to match the 22-year-old Troy with middleweight champion Bobo Olson for a title fight in May.

Troy, in winning the 23rd of his 24 fights last night, stalked Sandy from the second round on and finally found his opening in the fifth. A solid left hook staggered Sandy, at 153 outweighed by 4½ pounds.

Troy caught him early in the sixth with a long right smash that knocked Sandy halfway across the ring. The game New Yorker hung on but he couldn't get away fast enough in the seventh. A short left uppercut caught Sandy squarely on the chin. It was his second defeat in 16 fights—both losses to Willie Troy.

NHL's First Division Shows Close Scramble

(By The Associated Press)

The top teams in the National Hockey League were bunched today with only four points separating the fourth place Boston Bruins from the front-running Montreal Canadiens.

The runnerup Toronto Maple Leafs, currently the hottest team in the loop, downed Montreal 4-1 last night to move to within two points of the Candadiens.

The third place Detroit Red Wings tied Boston 2-2. Detroit, which has played three successive 2-2 deadlocks, trails Montreal by three points while Boston is four points off the pace.

In the other game the fifth place New York Rangers edged the Chicago Black Hawks 3-2 to push the Hawks deeper into the league cellar.

Rookie Bob Chrystal's first NHL goal provided the Rangers with their winning margin in the third period over the Hawks, who went down to their fifth straight setback. The triumph was New York's first over Chicago at home since Nov. 12, 1952.

George Robinson Cracks 675 Series; Van Deusen, Broskie Fire 246 Solos

The Central Rec Major League again supplied the fireworks in local tenpin activity Wednesday night with George "Stooge" Robinson leading the way with a gaudy 675 series on sticks of 233-204-238.

Herb Van Deusen and Harold Broskie wound up in a flat-footed tie for high single honors of the night with their 246 marks in the CRM.

Although the tempo died down somewhat in last night's scores, there were still some other good accounts turned in by other leagues.

Percy Slover highlighted action in the Federation American League with 234 and 624.

Henry Houska took both high single and series in the CYO Holy Name at the Bowlodrome with 232 and 568.

Bert Burr did likewise in the Central Hudson wheel with his scores of 213 and 551.

Evelyn Dolson led the Friendship League with 221 while Marge Jansen topped the triples with 547.

Sis MacElveen captured both honors in the Bowlodrome Pioneer Women's circuit with 182 and 464.

Blues May Try Aerial Blitz Against Maroon

Football experts are predicting that Coach Sam Kalloch will rely on an aerial blitz to whip Kingston in Saturday's clash of the unbeaten DUSO giants at Memorial Field in the Bridge City.

Unless, that is, he decides to use some amateur psychology and by-pass the obvious.

36-Point Average

The Blues have a terrific backfield quartet, scored 183 points in five straight wins for a 36-plus scoring average, while limiting the opposition to 34 points.

On defense, Kingston looks equally impressive, having restricted the opposition to 30 points—an average of one TD per game.

Offensively, the Maroon record pales in comparison with Poughkeepsie — only 109 points — but even the most fanatic Blue rooter will concede that Kingston's opponents were made of sterner stuff.

Hence, with the defenses theoretically equal, both teams will have to shoot the works on offense. For Poughkeepsie this means an aerial blitz. Charlie Johnson is a solid back, shifty, speedy and spectacular but Kingston's Gene Massa is equally potent. His 28-point spree against Middletown High still tops the DUSO efforts of the season. Then there is the possibility that Charlie Johnson will snap out of the slump that has enveloped him since his impressive debut against Port Jervis.

Four Passers

Poughkeepsie has four men who can pass and six who can catch the pigskin with finesse. But those two giant ends—Bob Angevine and Monty Stickles—pose the real threats to Kingston's chances Saturday. Taller than the average high school wingmen they are tough to defend and capable of making circus catches.

Charlie "The Blue" Johnson, notwithstanding, the forward pass is Poughkeepsie's greatest weapon and Angevine and Stickles make it click. Both are 6 feet 3 inches, rangy and rugged. They have inflicted heavy damage on the opposition and, if there is any real difference between the teams, these two altitudinous youngsters could be it.

Rested and ready after the break occasioned by last Saturday's snow blitz, Kingston has stressed pass defense in workouts this week. The squad is sound physically and morale is excellent.

Both teams have compiled prolific scouting charts on the other. Coach Burke and his staff have seen Poughkeepsie several times, while a portly gentleman resembling Sam Kalloch has been a frequent visitor at Kingston games, home and away.

Seldom have two teams had so much at stake in recent DUSO history. It may sound trite but this, truly, is the big one.

John McKenna, head football coach at V.M.I., was line coach at the school last season.

PHS Students Favor DUSO League

Port Jervis High school students and the varsity football squad have voted overwhelmingly in favor of remaining in the DUSO League.

In reporting a vote among students of the 11th and 12th grades, Superintendent of Schools Ervin R. Fletcher said Monday the tally was 163 to 53 in favor of staying in the league.

All 26 members of the varsity voted to remain in the league.

Two of the varsity squad members declared that players on other teams had deliberately tried to injure Port players. One said he had heard members on opposing teams admit they intended to injure Port players. Another said he had seen opposing players injure Port players with intent to do so.

Morale Is Intact

All members of the squad declared that playing in the DUSO League had not injured the team's morale. Eight thought they could get enough games with teams outside the league to make up a schedule, while 18 said this couldn't be done.

Among the students, 152 said that playing in the DUSO League had not injured the morale of either the student body or the team while 63 took the opposite position.

On the question of dropping football, 26 students favored doing so while 189 opposed it.

Average Age 16.1

Superintendent Fletcher revealed that the average age of the varsity squad is 16.1 years. Commenting upon that data, he called the board's attention that this year the Port freshman team had defeated all frosh squads in the DUSO League. He said this indicated that Port Jervis would have a championship team in the near future, as new members of the squad next year would join it with a record of games won and the spirit to win, plus good coaching.

On the other hand, he said, members of this year's team remaining on the squad would be a year older and would be better and more experienced players.

He added that among the list of teams mentioned as possible opponents for the Port team outside the DUSO League, several refused to play the Port team on the ground that the Red and Black was too superior.

Warriors, Knicks Battle for First

(By The Associated Press)

First place in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association will be at stake tonight when the red hot Philadelphia Warriors meet the New York Knickerbockers at Madison Square Garden.

Philadelphia climbed into a second place tie yesterday by defeating the Boston Celtics 78-72 for its third consecutive victory on the road. The Knicks have a 4-1 record, the Warriors 4-2.

A second period fight broke out between Boby Cousy of the Celtics and Paul Walther of the Warriors. Philadelphia's Neil Johnston joined the battle for the ball and banged Cousy into a press table. Cousy suffered rib injuries and scored only 14 points.

Area Gridders With Lehigh Varsity Eleven

Kingston High is represented by two players and Poughkeepsie High boasts one member of the Lehigh University Engineers football squad this season. Left to right, Will Hansen of the Town of Esopus, Tom Gloede of Poughkeepsie and Harvey Semilof of Kingston. Hansen and Semilof are ex-KHS line stars. Gloede, former three-letter star at Poughkeepsie is first string quarterback and one of Lehigh's top stars of recent years. (Lehigh U. photo)

Carter Eyes Winner Of Welter Title Go

Montreal, Nov. 12 (AP)—Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter, winner of three straight title fights by knockouts, today sought a crack at the winner of Friday's Kid Gavilan-Johnny Bratton welterweight championship bout.

After knocking out rangy Armand Savoie of Montreal last night in 59 seconds of the fifth round with "the best single punch (a right) I ever threw," Carter immediately put in a pitch for a shot at the welter crown.

"There ain't nobody left in the lightweights now for Jimmy," said Manager Willie Ketchum, the loquacious member of the New York combination, "so he might as well fight for the welterweight title."

The champion had a slight cut over his left eye as the result of a head collision with the 23-year-old Montrealer in the fourth round. Savoie had a similar gash.

Carter said the kayo punch "was a beauty—the best single punch I ever threw—travelled just about three inches."

"I saw it (the right) coming fast," said Savoie. "I was faking a left to the body and we both threw the right. He was lucky."

Carter, a 1 to 3 favorite, was trailing on the score cards of the three voting judges until he loosened with his blockbuster.

Giants Leave Japan

Tokyo, Nov. 12 (AP)—The newspaper Yomiuri reported today that New York Giants baseball players left Japan Tuesday with $1,000 each plus expenses and a deluge of gifts after a 14-game exhibition tour in Japan.

Robin Roberts of the Phillies received a bonus of $25,000 for signing with the club in 1948.

Tip-Up Rules For County Set by State

Tip-up regulations for the 1953-54 fishing season were announced today by Commissioner Perry B. Duryea of the state Conservation Department.

Commissioner Duryea quickly pointed out that while the order does not carry with it any guarantee of that essential element—ice—it does provide for an ice fishing season starting Nov. 15 and continuing, with some exceptions, through April 30, 1954.

The annual tip-up order is based upon recommendations prepared by the department's district fisheries managers following preliminary statewide surveys by them and by the game protectors.

As in past years, the order permits the operation of tip-ups in all waters not inhabited by trout—with certain exceptions—which are defined on a county basis. All waters inhabited by trout are out of bounds for tip-up fishermen

Need License

Tip-up fishermen are required to have a regular fishing license, and tip-ups must be marked with the name and address of the operator. In most waters the fishermen may not operate more than five tip-ups and, except in Chautauqua, Cross and Oneida lakes and in the Seneca river, the operator shall at all times be present when the lines are in the water.

In Ulster county the use of tip-ups is prohibited in the following waters:

Esopus creek from Ulster and Saugerties town line to Cantine's Mill dam at Saugerties; Ulster Lake or Cape Pond, Maratanza lake, Ulster Heights lake, all in town of Wawarsing; Awosting lake, towns of Wawarsing and Rochester; Chodikee lake or Black Pond, town of Lloyd.

Hockey Tourney Set for Weekend At Vassar College

The Northeast Field Hockey Association's annual championship tournament will be held on Nov. 14-15 at Vassar College at Poughkeepsie.

Nine all-star teams recruited from clubs in the northeastern part of the United States will participate in the two-day event.

The two survivors will play an exhibition match on Sunday at 2 p. m. The public is invited.

Among the field hockey associations entered are New Haven, Boston, Hampshire (Connecticut valley area), Stuyvesant (Poughkeepsie, Greenwich and New Rochelle area) and Mohawk (Albany and Saratoga Springs).

A committee headed by Mrs. Joyce Cran Barry will select the two finalists. Elizabeth Richey, associate professor of physical education at Vassar, is chairman for the event and also chairman of the Northeast Field Hockey Association.

Games are scheduled from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. on Saturday and 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon on Sunday.

Is Surprise Winner

Yonkers, Nov. 12 (AP)—Chestertown Boy, driven by Jack Walters, was the surprise winner of last night's Yonkers Raceway feature, the $3,000 Armistice Day Pace. He won by two and a half lengths in 2:05.1 over Irma's Boy, handled by Mack Hayman. Third went to Knight's Princess, driven by Hugh Bell. Chestertown Boy paid $20.60, $8.30 and $5.40.

Pressure Squarely On Bratton in Bout

Challenger Risks All Against Champ

Chicago, Nov. 12 (AP)—The pressure will be on Johnny Bratton to win as never before in his welterweight title scrap with champion Kid Gavilan at Chicago Stadium tomorrow night.

He risks just about everything in his long awaited shot at the 147-pound crown. He owned the National Boxing Assn. version of it two years ago, and the Cuban Kid defeated him at New York to become undisputed champion.

Gavilan, who is not expected to have trouble making weight, has little to lose no matter what happens. If he wins he can yield his title and take a crack at the middleweight crown held by Bobo Olson, or he can carry on as a welterweight meeting all comers.

If he loses, he can have a rematch with Bratton or forget it and go after Olson in a weight class more to his liking.

Money Is Vital

Bratton, a one-time flashy spender who is said to have gone through $100,000 before he reached 20, stands to receive about $36,000—20 per cent of the expected net gate of $130,000 and $10,000 from television receipts. The champion is cut in for 40 per cent.

"Johnny can get square financially all the way around, including back income taxes, if he beats Gavilan," said Bratton's manager, Hymie Wallman, a New York furrier.

"If he wins a group of businessmen in New York are ready to open a $100,000 restaurant at 52nd street and Sixth avenue in his name. Bratton will receive 50 per cent of the profits. But the deal will be off if he loses.

"If he loses, I don't want him to fight any more. This is his best and last chance to make big money."

Bratton thinks Gavilan has slipped.

Early Mass for Hunters

It was announced today that a special early Mass is scheduled Sunday in the Church of the Presentation, Port Ewen, for deer hunters. The Mass will start at 4:30 a. m., and all hunters are invited to attend it before going to the woods.

Marion Out, Dykes Is New Oriole Boss

Baltimore, Nov. 12 (AP) — Genial Jimmy Dykes, who lost his job as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics a week ago, was back in business today at a new stand, working for his old boss.

He became the third manager on the rising payroll of the Baltimore Orioles after Marty Marion was fired late yesterday with a year still to go on his $30,000 a year contract. Marion joined former St. Louis Browns Manager Rogers Hornsby on the inactive pay list.

Altogether, the Orioles will pay nearly $100,000 for the three managers and get work out of only one of them. Both of the surplus contracts expire after next season, as well as that of Dykes which was bought from Philadelphia. Hornsby is believed to draw around $40,000 and Dykes $30,000.

Dykes was picked by General Manager Art Ehlers, his recent boss at Philadelphia, as the proper field pilot to guide Baltimore in its return to major league baseball after nearly half a century.

'Attitude' Hurt Marty

Ehlers said he was firing Marion because of his "defeatist attitude" toward instilling new life in the last place Browns now that they've moved into a new environment. He called Dykes "forceful and energetic" and said he knew first hand he could work well with the club.

Marion said at St. Louis: "I don't feel too bad about it, honest I don't. To go to Baltimore with two strikes against you, like I had, would have been a pretty tough operation. But I wish 'em a lot of luck."

He said someone in the old Browns organization had given him a bad name with the Oriole management.

As for Jimmy, he said he was "tickled to death" to be back at work as a manager again and especially pleased to be "back with Art Ehlers."

Sees Good Town

"Art knows I'm not a yes man and I've never hesitated to tell him when I think a deal is good or bad," he said.

He predicted Baltimore would be a "hotter major league town" than Philadelphia and envisioned his new team playing in front of crowds of 26,000 rather than "the 1,500 or 1,600 fans" they customarily played for in St. Louis.

The Athletics dropped Dykes last week after he had piloted the club through three seasons—boosting them from eighth to sixth place in 1951, climbing to fourth in 1952 and slumping to seventh place last season with a team hampered by injuries.

English Resorts Make Plea on Fly Plague

London, Nov. 12 (AP) — Eight English seaside resorts appealed today for government aid against a plague of black flies which hitch-hiked across the Atlantic on floating seaweed.

Millions of the insects have appeared on the beaches of Brighton, Worthing, Hove, Littlehampton, Bognor Regis, Shanklin, Lyme Regis and Ventnor.

Bug experts say the flies are a type common along the eastern coast of North America. They are believed to have made the crossing on seaweed carried by the Gulf Stream.

The flies lay their eggs on the beach and the grubs mature deep in the sand. At Brighton, attacks by flame thrower and helicopter-sprayed insecticide have failed to budge the pests.

The resorts fear the flies will drive away vacationers unless wiped out before next spring.

On His Way to Recovery

Mickey Mantle, New York Yankees outfielder, holds his crutches off the floor in a Springfield, Mo., hospital to show how he is recovering from a knee operation. Surgeons removed torn cartilage from his right knee, first injured in the 1951 World Series. Mickey's doctor says he won't need a brace to play next year.

Plane Collision Reported

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Nov. 12 (AP)—A four-engine passenger plane and a military plane collided over Santa Fe Province today and first reports said 27 passengers and three military men were killed.

Benson Declares He's Not Interested In Own Popularity

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 12 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson, target of some farm leaders and congressmen because of his farm policies, declared today he is not interested in "personal popularity."

The GOP farm chief said he is striking ahead in an effort to develop a sound agricultural farm program that would serve "all of agriculture" and "all the people."

In a speech prepared for a meeting of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities, Benson said it would have been "comparatively easy" for him to "yield to the demands . . . to go off on a round of patchwork programming."

"There is no easy panacea for agriculture," he declared. "There is no magic formula that will set everything right. Patchwork remedies — quack remedies — patent medicine remedies — are a dime a dozen, and thats' all some of them are worth."

Benson has been highly critical of rigid high level price support features of existing farm law. He has contended they price crops out of markets, create surpluses and bring on unwanted production controls.

Takes Slap At Stand

Benson took a slap at those who are urging continuation of the present 90 per cent of parity price supports for major crops beyond the 1954 expiration date. Parity, a standard for measuring farm prices, is declared by law to be fair to farmers as well as consumers in relation to prices farmers must pay.

"I am firmly convinced" Benson said "that we should," and that we can, and that we must, help American farmers achieve full parity—and achieve it in the right place, the market place. And we must do it while preserving, and increasing, the essence of freedom."

Benson said a sound farm program must build better farm markets, develop new uses for farm products, show farmers how to develop balanced farming plans and increase their efficiency.

He called upon the land grant colleges to help develop such a program.

With delivery of his Columbus speech, Benson heads into drouth-distressed areas of the southwest on a five-day inspection tour that will take him into parts of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming and Missouri.

Takes His Vacation

Berlin, Nov. 12 (AP)—Prime Minister Otto Grotewohl of East Germany is taking his vacation, the government announced today. Presumably he is in the Soviet Union, where most top Communists in eastern Europe vacation. Deputy Prime Minister Walter Ulbricht will act for him.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—Steel shares were in demand today in an otherwise mixed stock market.

Gains ran to between 1 and 2 points at the best and losses were held down to fractions.

Interest in the steels came as the magazine Iron Age reported the industry had "hurdled the great transition from sellers' to buyers' market without suffering a sharp decline."

Higher stocks included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Republic Steel, General Motors, Pacific Western Oil, Amerada Petroleum, Goodyear, and General Electric.

Drowsy Driver Injured

Officers Floyd Krom and Anthony Turck reported to police headquarters at 2:46 a. m., today that Robert Bruce MacArthur, 29, of Larchmont, suffered a laceration of the chin when his car struck a guard rail on the Washington avenue viaduct. MacArthur, the officers said, claimed "he fell asleep while driving toward Kingston." He was treated at Kingston Hospital.

The human brain reaches almost its full weight in the seventh year.

October 31 marked the end of the year for the Druids, ancient religious order in France, England and Ireland.

Cows Started Truman

New York, Nov. 12 (AP)—Former President Truman, briskly pacing the sidewalks of New York, told newsmen today he had been taking early morning walks for more than 40 years. "What started you?" asked one slightly winded newsman. "Rounding up the cows," said the one time Missouri farm boy.

Regional Forecasts

Northern New York, Mohawk valley area, south-central New York and southeastern New York — Considerable cloudiness and cooler today with a few light showers of snow or rain, showers mostly in hilly and mountain sections. High temperature in the 40s. Light winds generally, becoming northerly. Gradual clearing tonight. Low in the 20s. Friday, fair and becoming warmer in the afternoon with light winds.

Rabbi Is Killed In Auto Accident

Greensburg, Pa., Nov. 12 (AP)—An auto careened off the Pennsylvania turnpike into the side of a restaurant at the New Stanton Interchange near here today, killing Rabbi Lazars Veilers, 57, of President street, Brooklyn and injuring his wife, Rosa, and the driver of the auto.

Mrs. Veilers is in critical condition in the Westmoreland County Hospital. Harry Drebin, 46, of Heap street, Brooklyn, is in fair condition in the same hospital. He was driving.

Police said they have no details on the crash.

Little Weather Change

(By The Associated Press)

The nation's weather pattern showed little change in the last 24 hours and another fairly cool November day was the outlook for most of the nation There were three wet regions early today. Rain fell along the Pacific coast from San Francisco northward; fog and light drizzle was reported in parts of Nebraska and Kansas and in the east rain and rain mixed with snow hit sections of central Pennsylvania.

Tip for Kitchenette Cook

If you are a kichenette cook, you'll find it is wise to start and end your meals with a cold course. Then you can use your limited heating space for the main course.

Eisenhower to

UN matters and other global problems probably would take second place to discussion of North American affairs.

Besides continental defense, the controversial St. Lawrence seaway proposal also appears certain to be discussed by Eisenhower and the Canadians in Ottawa. Last week the President took the final step, so far as government action is concerned, to clear the way for construction of the St. Lawrence power project by New York state and the Canadian province of Ontario.

But the seaway project, which would open the Great Lakes to ocean traffic, still is the subject of hot controversy in this country. Canada has announced its intention of going ahead alone with the seaway if this country doesn't join in the project.

Eisenhower plans to leave Ottawa by train Saturday night and arrive back in Washington late Sunday.
